Amended Notice of Hearing

Foresight Capital Corporation, ^, Gilbert Kenneth Wong,
Jill Ellen MacGregor Bock aka
Jill Ellen MacGregor, and Martin Raymond Hall

¶ 1 A hearing will be held to give Foresight Capital Corporation (Foresight), ^ Gilbert Kenneth Wong (Wong), Jill Ellen MacGregor Bock (also known as Jill Ellen MacGregor) (Bock) and Martin Raymond Hall (Hall) an opportunity to be heard before the British Columbia Securities Commission considers whether it is in the public interest to make orders under sections 161, 162 and 174 of the Securities Act, RSBC 1996, c. 418.

¶ 2 The Executive Director alleges that:

Parties

1. Foresight was incorporated in British Columbia. It was registered under the Act as a securities dealer from June 9, 1997 to October 12, 2001, as a mutual fund dealer only from October 12, 2001 to December 15, 2002, and is now defunct. Its head office was located in Burnaby, British Columbia. It has a history of regulatory compliance problems dating back to 1997.
2. ^
3. ^
4. Wong was a director of Foresight at all material times. He was also president of Foresight until June 2002. He was registered as a trading partner, director or officer and as the compliance officer for Foresight from June 9, 1997 to October 7, 2002. He was also registered as a salesperson of Foresight between October 7, 2002 and December 15, 2002. He is not currently registered under the Act.
5. Bock is a resident of British Columbia and was registered as a salesperson of Foresight from May 5, 1998 to January 8, 2001. She is no longer registered under the Act, but is licensed as a life insurance agent in BC, and sells a variety of products including segregated funds.
6. Hall was registered as a salesperson of Foresight from January 7, 1999 to July 3, 2002. He is currently registered as a salesperson for another mutual fund dealer operating in British Columbia.

Bock and Hall – Unsuitable Recommendations and other Breaches

7. Bock and Hall breached section 48 of the Securities Rules, B.C. Reg. 194/97 (the Rules) by recommending leveraged investment strategies that were too risky for their clients.
8. Bock also breached section 48 of the Rules by investing client funds in mutual funds and exempt products that were too risky and unsuitable for her clients' needs, objectives and personal and financial circumstances.
9. Hall failed to deal honestly with two clients by signing their names on mutual fund purchase and loan transfer documents, and witnessing those signatures as true, without their authorization. In doing so, Hall breached section 14 of the Rules.
10. As a registrant, Foresight also breached sections 14 and 48 of the Rules in every case where Bock and Hall breached those provisions.
11. Bock also made untrue statements of material facts when she told clients that two companies would go public. She made the statements with the intention of effecting a trade in the securities, and knew or ought reasonably to have known that the statements were misrepresentations. Accordingly, Bock breached sections 50(1)(c) and 50(1)(d) of the Act.

Failure to Supervise

19. Foresight failed to designate a compliance officer to supervise transactions made on behalf of clients, contrary to section 47 of the Rules. Specifically, Foresight's compliance officer failed to supervise the transactions of Hall and Bock ^ described above.

Failure to Ensure Compliance

20. Foresight failed to designate a compliance officer to ensure that Foresight and its partners, directors, officers and employees complied with the Act and the Rules, contrary to section 65 of the Rules. Specifically, Foresight's compliance officer failed to ensure that Hall and Bock ^ complied with the Act and Rules, and that Foresight complied with its capital requirements and had written prudent business procedures, all as described above.

^Wong – Responsibility for Foresight's Breaches

21. As director and officer of Foresight, ^ Wong authorized, permitted or acquiesced in each of Foresight's contraventions of the Act and Rules described above. Accordingly, under section 168.2 of the Act, ^ Wong contravened the same provisions of the Act and Rules as Foresight.

Public Interest

22. Foresight, ^ Wong, Bock and Hall acted contrary to the public interest by committing the acts described above.
