Notification procedure

- 2 (1) For the purpose of section 145(1) [Claim for wrongful benefit] of the Act, the manner of notification is set out in subsections (2) through (4) below.
  - (2) The Commission must publish a notice disclosing
    - (a) the matter to which the money received by the Commission relates,
    - (b) the identity of the parties known by the Commission to be involved,
    - (c) the amount of money received by the Commission in relation to the matter,
    - (d) the method of making a claim for the funds, and
    - (e) the last date on which a valid claim can be filed.
  - (3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) must be published at least once each week for 3 consecutive weeks in one major daily newspaper of general and regular paid circulation in British Columbia.
  - (4) In addition to publishing the notice under subsection (3), the Commission must also post the information required in the notice under subsection (2) on its website for a period of 3 years from the date of the first publication of the notice.
