

BC Policy 13-601

Required Forms

Effective March 8, 2023

PART 1 SPECIFICATION OF FORMS

1.1 Executive Director Specifies Required Forms - The Securities Act and regulations mandate the use of required forms in certain circumstances. Section 182 of the Act authorizes the Executive Director to specify the required forms. We list the specified forms in the Index of Forms, attached to this policy. We also list, for convenience, forms that the Commission has adopted as rules under section 184 of the Act. The Index also lists the sections of the Act and regulations that refer to a required form where the Executive Director has not specified a form, as well as sections of the Securities Rules that refer to specified offering documents.

1.2 Updating the Index - We will update the Index when necessary and will attach the most current Index to this policy. The Index is also available separately on our website at www.bcsc.bc.ca under Securities Law: Forms (see site map).

PART 2 PERSONAL INFORMATION FORM

The Executive Director has not specified a form of personal information form under section 90 of the Act. National Instrument 41-101 General Prospectus Requirements, National Policy 12-202 Revocation of a Compliance-Related Cease Trade Order, and Multilateral Instrument 51-105 Issuers Quoted in the U.S. Over-the-Counter Markets describe what personal information should be filed by issuers or their directors, executive officers, proposed directors, proposed executive officers, and promoters in certain circumstances. In situations where the Commission or the Executive Director requires a director, officer, promoter, or control person of an issuer to submit information under section 90 of the Act, the person would be required to provide that information in the form required under National Instrument 41-101 or under Multilateral Instrument 51-105 Issuers Quoted in the U.S. Over-the-Counter Markets.

PART 3 COMPLIANCE WITH FORM REQUIREMENTS

Section 182 of the Act authorizes the Executive Director to specify the form, content and other particulars of a record that must be prepared, filed, provided, or sent in a required form (the Required Form) under the Act or under a regulation.

Certain types of forms provide an outline of their contents. Information may be added to this type of form whether or not the outline specifically refers to such information. In some cases, a section of the Rules, or the form itself, specifically indicates that inapplicable sections may be deleted.

Other types of forms require an individual or firm to fill in the blanks. Persons completing and filing this type of form must complete them without additions, deletions or modifications. If a person is filing a Required Form that cannot be modified, but needs to indicate that sections of the form do not apply, then the person may draw lines through the inapplicable sections or insert “N/A” next to or beneath those sections. If a person makes deletions for any other reason, then the person must write a letter explaining the reasons for the deletions and submit it with the Required Form.

Forms that contain statements or information that, in a material respect and at the time and in light of circumstances under which it is made, is false or misleading, or omit facts from the statement or information necessary to make that statement or information not false or misleading are not in the Required Form.

Only information that a person submits in the Required Form will be considered as “filed” under the Act.

March 8, 2023

Peter Brady
Executive Director