

CSA Staff Notice 23-334Proposed Amendments to National Instrument 23-101 Trading Rules and Proposed Changes to Companion Policy 23-101 *Trading RulesMay 29, 2025

On January 23, 2025, the Canadian Securities Administrators (CSA or we) published for comment proposed amendments to the National Instrument 23-101 Trading Rules (Proposed Amendments) and proposed changes to Companion Policy 23-101 Trading Rules (Proposed Changes) on lowering the active trading fee cap applicable to trades in securities that are listed on both a Canadian recognized exchange and a U.S. registered national securities exchange (U.S. Inter-listed Securities).

Extension of comment period

The comment period on the Proposed Amendments and Proposed Changes closed on March 24, 2025. We received six comment letters and thought it would be beneficial for stakeholders to have additional time to review the Proposed Amendments and Proposed Changes. We are therefore extending the comment period to July 2, 2025. Comments already received are posted on the website of each of the Alberta Securities Commission at www.asc.ca, the Ontario Securities Commission at www.osc.ca and the Autorité des marchés financiers at www.lautorite.qc.ca.

In particular, we seek comment on the alternative fee caps mentioned in the notice of the Proposed Amendments and Proposed Changes:

- i) CAD 0.0010, without consideration for the current foreign exchange rate;
- ii) CAD 0.0014, which approximates the SEC's adopted access fee cap with consideration for the current foreign exchange rate (USD 0.0010 x 1.44);¹
- iii) CAD 0.0017, which is the current fee cap for non-U.S. Inter-listed Securities; or
- iv) an alternative not listed above.

We understand that some potential commenters may not have commented because they had previously responded to Joint CSA/CIRO Staff Notice 23-331 Request for Feedback on December 2022 SEC Market Structure Proposals and Potential Impact on Canadian Capital Markets. We encourage commenters who responded to that notice to review and comment on the specific Proposed Amendments and Proposed Changes published in January 2025.

¹ If this fee cap is adopted, it would remain constant at CAD 0.0014 regardless of subsequent changes in the exchange rate.

How to provide comments

Stakeholders are invited to provide comments on the Proposed Amendments and Proposed Changes in writing on or before July 2, 2025. Instructions on how to submit comments can be found in Annex A.
