NOTICE THAT THE BCSC HAS RECEIVED MONEY PURSUANT TO AN ORDER MADE UNDER SECTION 161(1)(g) OF THE ACT
RE: JEFFERSON FRANKLIN MESIDOR

Notice posted on November 1, 2017

The Commission has received $5,714.51 from an order a Commission panel made under section 161(1)(g) of the Securities Act on January 6, 2014, against Jefferson Franklin Mesidor (2014 BCSECCOM 6).

Under the Securities Act, the Commission must make funds that it receives from an order under section 161(1)(g) available to investors who lost money as a result of a respondent's misconduct.

On October 21, 2013, following a hearing, a Commission panel found that the respondent Mesidor committed fraud when he took $32,280 from two investors, ostensibly for foreign exchange trading, used some of the funds for that purpose, but spent $16,000 of the funds on other things.

Pursuant to section 161(1)(g), the panel ordered Mesidor to pay to the commission $16,000 he obtained as a result of his misconduct. (The panel also ordered him to pay an administrative penalty of $75,000).

If you were an investor who lost money in this case, you may be eligible to make a claim to recover your loss. Use the required Form to make your claim. You should make your claim as soon as you can and no later than November 1, 2020.
