SUMMARY

The following is a summary of certain information contained in this Offering Memorandum, and reference should be made to the more detailed and additional information contained elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Offering Memorandum have the meanings set out in the Trust Declaration made as of January 24, 2012 and as amended March 25, 2013, January 1, 2015, April 9, 2015 and September 1, 2016 in respect of the Trust (the “Trust Declaration”).

Business of the Trust

The Trust is a limited purpose, unincorporated open-ended investment trust, formed under and governed by the terms and conditions of the Trust Declaration and by the general laws of trusts and the laws of British Columbia and is resident in Canada.

The Trust has been established to acquire limited partnership units (the “Investment LP Units”) of Rise Properties Limited Partnership (“Investment LP”), temporarily hold cash and investments for the purposes of paying the expenses and liabilities of the Trust, make other investments as contemplated by the Trust Declaration, pay amounts payable by the Trust in connection with the redemption of any Units and make distributions to Unitholders. Through its ownership of Investment LP Units, the Trust will indirectly acquire, hold, manage, operate, improve, convert and sell a diversified portfolio of revenue-producing real estate properties in the United States (the “Properties”).

Business of the Investment LP

The Investment LP is a limited partnership formed pursuant to and governed by the laws of British Columbia and created by a Limited Partnership Agreement dated February 13, 2012, as amended and restated August 10, 2017, between the Trust and Rise Properties Holdings Ltd. (the “Investment GP”). The Investment LP was established, among other things, to:

- (a) acquire common shares (“Investment Co Shares”) of Rise Properties Canada Ltd. (“Investment Co”);
- (b) advance a loan (the “Holding Co Loan”) to Rise Properties US Inc. (“Holding Co”) pursuant to the terms of the Holding Co Loan Agreement; and
- (c) temporarily hold cash and investments for the purposes of paying the expenses and liabilities of the Investment LP and making distributions to the holders of the Investment LP Units.

Business of Investment Co

Investment Co is a corporation formed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the Province of British Columbia and is owned 100% by the Investment LP. Investment Co was established, among other things, to:

- (a) acquire common shares (“Active Co Shares”) of Rise Properties US Holdings Inc. (“Active Co”); and
- (b) temporarily hold cash and investments and make distributions to the holders of the Investment Co Shares.

Investment Co, together with Holding Co, act to satisfy cross-border tax filing and payment requirements so as to absolve Canadian Unitholders from US tax matters. When income is paid out of Investment Co, its character is eligible dividend income from a Canadian corporation.

Business of Active Co

Active Co is a corporation formed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the state of Nevada and is owned 100% by Investment Co. Active Co was established, among other things, to:

- (a) acquire common shares (“Holding Co Shares”) of Rise Properties US Inc. (“Holding Co”); and
- (b) temporarily hold cash and investments and make distributions to the holders of Active Co Shares.

This entity serves to qualify the Units as a non-passive foreign investment for US taxpayers.

Business of Holding Co

Holding Co is a corporation formed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the state of Nevada and is owned 100% by the Active Co. Holding Co was established, among other things, to:

- (a) acquire limited partnership units (“Operating LP Units”) of Rise Properties Master Limited Partnership (“Operating LP”); and
- (b) temporarily hold cash and investments and make distributions to the holders of the Holding Co Shares.

Holding Co receives income from the Operating LP and pays US taxes, thus satisfying a portion of the cross-border tax filing and payment requirements.

Business of the Operating LP

The Operating LP is a limited partnership formed pursuant to and governed by the laws of Nevada and created by a Limited Partnership Agreement dated November 22, 2011 between Holding Co and Rise Properties Master Partnership Holdings Inc. (the “Operating GP”). The Operating GP is engaged in identifying investment and development opportunities in multi-family and other revenue-producing real estate located in the United States. In order to take advantage of such investment opportunities, the Operating GP has established the Operating LP pursuant to the laws of Nevada.

The principal business of the Operating LP will be to identify, acquire, own, manage and rent one or more of the Properties as revenue-producing rental properties. This aspect of the Operating LP’s business is referred to in this Offering Memorandum as the “Rental Operations” of the Operating LP. The Operating LP may also redevelop, repair, renovate and convert into condominiums or other subdivided or undivided interests one or more of the Properties and will market and sell such condominium or other subdivided or undivided interests. This aspect of the Operating LP's business is referred to in this Offering Memorandum as "Conversion".

In order to accommodate the expected requirements of lenders and to segregate any risks of ownership between Properties, the Operating GP intends to have each of the Properties owned by a separate underlying limited partnership, each a "Property LP", established and owned by the Operating LP.

As of the date hereof, the Trust's property portfolio consists of nine Properties. See Item 2.3 "Development of the Business – Properties Acquired to Date".

Affiliates of the Investment GP and Operating GP

The Operating GP may employ or retain affiliates of the Operating GP ("Operating GP Affiliates") to provide goods or services to the Operating LP, provided that the cost of such goods or services are competitive with the cost of similar goods or services provided by an independent third party.

The Operating GP may contract the following Operating GP Affiliates to provide services to the Operating LP: MT Asset Management LLC, Thrive Communities Inc., Thrive Developments, Inc. Certain principals of Rise Properties Services Ltd. (the "Trustee") are also principals of these Operating GP Affiliates. For more information on these Operating GP Affiliates and their respective principals, see Item 3.2 – "Affiliates and Management Experience".

The fees outlined in the table below may be paid directly to the Operating GP, or to Operating GP Affiliates of the Operating GP and the Investment GP, from time to time. The Operating GP believes these fees are reasonable and competitive with the cost of similar goods or services provided by independent third parties.

The Developer will retain the warranty and HOA (Homeowner Association) risk associated with such Conversion project and shall be responsible for the cost of any claim above and beyond the warranty reserve amount.

Offering:

This is a continuous offering of the Units. There is no maximum offering. There is no minimum offering. You may be the only purchaser. This Offering is being made pursuant to exemptions from the prospectus and, where applicable, registration requirements of applicable securities legislation in Canada. See Item 5.2 "Subscription Procedure".

Subscription Procedure:

Subscribers may subscribe for Units by returning to the Trust a completed Subscription Agreement, together with payment in the form of a certified cheque or bank draft in the amount of the Subscription Price for the Subscriber's Units. A Subscriber whose subscription is accepted by the Trustee will become a Unitholder. The Trustee may terminate the Offering at any time. See Item 5.2 "Subscription Procedure".

Sales Fee:	The Trust may pay a sales fee (the "Sales Fee") to registered securities dealers and exempt market dealers, or where permitted, non-registrants, in an amount not to exceed 6% of the subscription monies obtained by such persons. The Trust will be obligated to pay any applicable GST or other taxes on such fees. The Trust's expectation is that the average sales fee paid will be approximately 4% of the subscription proceeds.
Use of Proceeds:	The net subscription proceeds received from the issuance of Units will ultimately be invested in the acquisition of Operating LP Units and will be used by the Operating LP in Conversions and Rental Operations.
The Trust's Distribution Policy:	The Trust will distribute to each Unitholder Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) realized from its investment in Investment LP Units (being its share of the distributable cash received by the Investment LP and generated by the Investment LP's indirect investment, through its ownership of Investment Co Shares and Holding Co Loan, in the Properties owned and operated by the Operating LP) for each Distribution Period in which such amounts are realized. The Trustee, in its discretion, acting reasonably, will, in respect of each Distribution Period, allocate for distribution an amount equal to Grossed-Up Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) pro rata among the Classes of Units based on the number of Units outstanding in each Class. Class Specific Expenses shall then be applied to reduce the amount of Grossed-Up Distributable Cash Flow allocable to the Class to which such Class Specific Expenses relate as the Trustee may determine in its sole discretion. The Trustee will, in respect of each Distribution Period, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable to the Unitholders of record at the close of business on each Distribution Record Date, all or any part of the Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) for the Distribution Period. The Trustee will have the right but not the obligation to distribute and allocate Distributable Cash, Trust Income, Net Realized Capital Gains and any other applicable amounts among Unitholders in such a manner so as to ensure where possible that they are treated equitably taking into account differences that may arise as a result of the acquisition of Units at different times in a fiscal year or in different fiscal calendar years. The Trust intends to distribute its net income and net realized capital gains, if any, in the year they are earned or realized to ensure that no income tax is payable by the Trust. If distributions to Unitholders are in excess of net income and net realized capital gains, if any, of the Trust the adjusted cost base of the Unitholders' Units will generally be reduced. See Item 5.1 “Terms of Units – Distributions” and Item 6 “Summary of Principal Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations”.

Distributions by Investment LP

Subject to the payment of a Special Distribution – Investment LP, in each Period, the Investment LP will pay and distribute Available Cash Flow – Investment LP as follows:

- (a) First, to the Limited Partners and the Investment GP, until they have received an amount (the “Payment Amount”) which, when aggregated with all previous distributions in that Period pursuant to this subsection (a), is equal to (but not in excess of) the Hurdle Return (After Tax) for such Period and shall be paid as follows:
 - (i) to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period, an amount equal to the product of the Payment Amount multiplied by the Limited Partners’ Percentage Interest; and
 - (ii) to the Investment GP, an amount equal to the product of the Payment Amount multiplied by the General Partner Percentage Interest;
- (b) Second, to the extent that Available Cash Flow – Investment LP exceeds the Total Return – Investment LP in such Period (the “Excess”), the Excess shall be paid, in an amount not to exceed any negative Value Appreciation in such Period, as follows:
 - (i) to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period, an amount equal to the product of the Excess multiplied by the Limited Partners’ Percentage Interest; and
 - (ii) to the Investment GP, an amount equal to the product of the Excess multiplied by the General Partner Percentage Interest; and
- (c) Third, to the extent that Available Cash Flow – Investment LP exceeds the amounts distributed pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section, 20% of such excess shall be paid to the Investment GP and 80% of such excess shall be paid as follows:
 - (i) to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the period, an amount equal to the product of such excess multiplied by the Limited Partners’ Percentage Interest; and
 - (ii) to the Investment GP, an amount equal to the product of such excess multiplied by the General Partner Percentage Interest.

For a more detailed description on Distributions by the Investment LP, see Item 5.1 B “The Investment LP Units - Distributions”.

Percentage Interests:

Pursuant to the Investment LP Agreement, the Limited Partners are entitled to receive the Limited Partners' Percentage Interest in all of the income and capital of the Investment LP and the Investment GP is entitled to receive the General Partner Percentage Interest in all of the income and capital of the Investment LP. Initially, the Limited Partners' Percentage Interest is equal to 100% and the General Partner Percentage Interest is nil. In any Period in which the Total Return – Investment LP exceeds the Hurdle Return, to the extent that Available Cash Flow – Investment LP is not sufficient to pay such excess (being the Excess Return), the Investment GP will participate in that portion of the Excess Return through an accretion to the General Partner Percentage Interest.

Redemption:

Units will be redeemable at the request of the Unitholders, subject to applicable law and certain other conditions set out in the Trust Declaration. If conditions preclude the payment of redemptions in cash, redemptions may be paid in-kind through the issuance of additional Units or debt securities. See Item 5.1 "Terms of Units – Redemption". The payment in cash by the Trust of the redemption price of Units will reduce the amount of cash available to the Trust for the payment of distributions to the holders of Units, since the payment of redemptions will take priority over the payment of cash distributions. See Item 8 "Risk Factors".

Distribution on Termination:

On the termination of the Trust, the assets of the Trust will be liquidated and the proceeds distributed to pay the liabilities of the Trust and to establish reserves for the contingent liabilities of the Trust. Thereafter, the Trustee will redeem the Units from the Unitholders on a pro rata basis.

See Item 5.1 "Terms of Units – Distribution on Termination of the Trust".

Non-Residency Restriction

At no time may "non-residents" of Canada (as defined in the Tax Act) be the beneficial owners of more than 49% of the Units, nor may they beneficially own any rights or options that may entitle them to acquire Units that would result in more than 49% of the Units, at any time, being held or beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by non-residents. The Trust Declaration includes provisions allowing the Trustee to require the redemption of Units by a non-resident Unitholder to ensure that this threshold is not exceeded. See Item 5.1 "Forced Redemption Upon Non-Residency".

Taxation of the Trust and Unitholders:

Subject to various tax considerations (refer to Item 6 "Summary of Principal Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations"), income (i.e. return on capital) is generally taxed in the hands of a Unitholder as ordinary income, capital gains, or dividends. Amounts in excess of the income of the Trust that are paid or payable by the Trust to a Unitholder (i.e. return of capital) are generally non-taxable to a Unitholder (but reduce the Unitholder's adjusted cost base in the Unit for purposes of the Tax Act). See Item 6 "Summary of Principal Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations".

Transferability:

Subject to exceptions set out in the Trust Declaration, Units are transferable only on the register of Unitholders maintained by the Trustee or by a registrar and transfer agent appointed by the Trustee. As well, securities requirements may prohibit or restrict transferability of Units. See Item 10 "Resale Restrictions".

Risk Factors:

An investment in Units entails a number of risks, including that this Offering is primarily a blind pool offering; that there is no market for the Units and a market for Units is not expected to develop; that an investment in Units is an indirect investment in the Properties acquired by the Operating LP, and as such, have attached to them the risks associated with investing in real estate generally, such as environmental risk, competition for real estate properties, changes in economic conditions; risks associated with redemptions and retractions of Units; the possibility of conflicts of interest; and risks associated with changes in income tax regulation.

This Offering is not suitable for investors who cannot afford to assume any significant risks in connection with their investments. The risks are more fully described in Item 8 “Risk Factors”.

The Investment LP Agreements sets forth the following rules that apply to the valuation of all Investment LP assets and liabilities:

- (a) the value of any cash on hand or on deposit, prepaid expenses, cash distributions declared and interest accrued and not yet received, will be deemed to be the face amount thereof, unless the Investment GP determines that any such asset is not worth the face amount thereof, in which event the value thereof will be deemed to be such value as the Investment GP determines to be the fair value thereof;
- (b) the market value of any money market instruments will be deemed to be their cost, plus accrued interest;
- (c) the market value of any direct or indirect interest in real property will be an amount equal to 97% of the fair market value of a Property, which shall be determined assuming a fully informed willing buyer and a willing seller dealing at arm’s length with one another and a free and open market for such Property. Such Property may include stabilized income-generating rental properties, properties that are undergoing a repositioning and properties undergoing a Conversion. Such value shall only reflect the Investment LP’s direct or indirect interest in such Property.
- (d) the market value of any mortgage will be deemed to be the aggregate principal amount owing under or in respect of the mortgage on the Valuation Date, plus interest accrued thereon to and including the Valuation Date, unless the Investment GP determines that such mortgage has a fair market value which is different than the aggregate of such principal and interest, in which case the fair market value of such mortgage will be deemed to be the value as determined by the Investment GP, acting reasonably;
- (e) any security that is listed or dealt in on a stock exchange will be valued at the sale price applicable to a board lot last reported at the close of trading on the Valuation Date on the principal stock exchange on which such security is traded, or, if no sale price is available at that time, the last closing price quoted for the security, but if bid and ask quotes are available, at the average of the latest bid and asked price rather than the last quoted closing price;
- (f) any security purchased, the purchase price of which has not been paid, will be included for valuation purposes as a security held and the purchase price, including brokers’ commissions and other expenses, will be treated as a liability of the Investment LP;
- (g) any security sold but not delivered, pending receipt of the proceeds, will be valued at the net sale price;
- (h) if any Valuation Date would not be a Business Day, then the Investment LP property will be valued as of, and the Valuation Date will be deemed to be the preceding Business Day;
- (i) if any investment cannot be valued under the foregoing rules or if the foregoing rules are at any time considered by the Investment GP to be inappropriate under the circumstances, then notwithstanding the foregoing rules, the Investment GP will make such valuation as it considers fair and reasonable;
- (j) the value of any assets of the Investment LP quoted or valued in terms of foreign currency, the value of any funds on deposit and contractual obligations payable to the Investment LP in foreign currency and the value of any liabilities and contractual obligations payable by the Investment LP in foreign currency will be determined using the applicable rate of exchange available to the Investment LP to acquire Canadian dollars with such foreign currency current at, or as nearly as practicable to, the Valuation Date as determined by the Investment GP; and

- (k) estimated operating expenses of the Investment LP will be accrued to the date as of which the Investment LP Value is being determined. Such expenses shall include accrued fees payable to Affiliates.

For the purposes of the foregoing rules, quotations and appraisals may be obtained, as applicable, from any report in common use, a reputable broker or other financial institution or a licensed appraiser, provided always that the Investment GP will, in circumstances where such quotations or appraisals are not available or the Investment GP is of the opinion that they do not accurately reflect the value of the assets of the Investment LP or are disproportionately expensive to obtain in the circumstances, retain sole discretion to use such information and methods as the Investment GP deems to be necessary or desirable for valuing the assets of the Investment LP, including the use of a formula computation.

RISE PROPERTIES TRUST
INVESTMENT STRUCTURE AS AT September 30, 2017

2.2 The Trust's Business

The Trust - The Trust has been established for the purpose of investing in the Investment LP Units. It is the vehicle through which investment capital from the Canadian public is raised and has been structured as such to allow for Canadian Deferred Plan eligibility while preserving the tax efficiency of a flow through entity. The subscription proceeds received from the issuance of the Units will be invested in an equal number of Investment LP Units issued by the Investment LP. The Trust will also temporarily hold cash and money market investments for the purposes of paying the expenses and liabilities of the Trust, pay amounts payable by the Trust in connection with the redemption of any Units, and make distributions to Unitholders. The Trust's long-term objective is to earn income by way of distributions from the Investment LP to holders of the Investment LP Units, which will originate from the Investment LP's indirect interest in the Rental Operations and Conversions of the Properties. An investment in Units is intended to provide investors with the opportunity to receive cash distributions originating from the ongoing Rental Operations and Conversions of the Properties.

Investment LP - The gross proceeds from the issuance of the Units will be invested in the Investment LP through the Trust's investment in LP Units. The Investment LP has been established for the purposes of issuing Investment LP Units and investing in Investment Co Shares and the Holding Co Loan. The Investment LP will also temporarily hold cash for the purposes of paying its expenses and liabilities and making distributions to the holders of Investment LP Units. The Investment LP exists to accommodate the payment to the Investment GP of non-cash accretion of percentage interest for returns generated in excess of 8%. The Investment GP receives non-cash performance bonuses through its carried interest in the Investment LP. This interest is known as the General Partner Percentage Interest.

Investment Co - A portion of the gross proceeds received by the Investment LP from the issuance of the Investment LP Units will be invested in the Investment Co through an investment in Investment Co Shares. Investment Co has been established for the purposes of issuing Investment Co Shares and investing in the Active Co Shares. Investment Co, together with Holding Co, act to satisfy cross-border tax filing and payment requirements so as to absolve Canadian Unitholders from US tax matters. When income is paid out of Investment Co, its character is eligible dividend income from a Canadian corporation.

Active Co - The gross proceeds from the issuance of the Investment Co Shares will be invested in the Active Co through the Investment Co's investment in Active Co Shares. Active Co has been established for the purposes of issuing Active Co Shares to Investment Co and investing in the Holding Co. This entity serves to qualify the Units as a non-passive foreign investment for US taxpayers. Absent the existence of this entity within the organizational structure, the Trust would be deemed a Passive Foreign Investment Company, or "PFIC" for US taxpayers. Such a designation would result in material tax inefficiencies for US taxpayers.

Holding Co - The gross proceeds from the issuance of the Active Co Shares will be invested in the Holding Co through the Active Co's investment in Holding Co Shares. As well, Holding Co will borrow the Holding Co Loan from the Investment LP. Holding Co has been established for the purposes of issuing Holding Co Shares to Active Co and borrowing the Holding Co Loan from the Investment LP and investing in the Operating LP Units. Holding Co, together with Investment Co, act to satisfy cross-border tax filing and payment requirements so as to absolve Canadian Unitholders from US tax matters. Holding Co receives income from the Operating LP and pays US taxes.

Operating LP - The gross proceeds from the issuance of the Holding Co Shares to Investment Co and the Holding Co Loan will be invested in the Operating LP through Holding Co's investment in Operating LP Units. The Operating LP has been established for the purpose of owning and operating a portfolio of income-producing multi-family residential apartment Properties (or proportionate interests in such Properties) in the United States, and holding such Properties as capital property for Rental Operations. In the future, as market conditions allow, the Operating LP will select some or all of the Properties for Conversion. The Operating GP intends to invest the proceeds realized from the issuance of the Operating LP Units to Holding Co in such properties.

The Operating GP intends to concentrate on identifying properties for possible acquisition in strong growth markets, and to manage the Properties with the view to preserving capital and providing quarterly cash returns. The Operating LP also serves to consolidate the ownership of the Properties thereby creating a balance sheet with sufficient strength to meet guarantor requirements in connection with the mortgage debt held by each Property LP, while at the same time, preserving flow through tax treatment.

The Properties - The Operating LP intends to invest the proceeds realized from the issuance of Operating LP Units in a portfolio of income-producing multi-family residential apartment properties in the United States. All Properties will be purchased at prices and on terms negotiated with arm's length third party vendors. The Operating GP will have a detailed inspection report prepared by an independent inspection firm for each Property that is proposed for acquisition, and will have any such Property appraised by a qualified appraiser.

The Operating LP intends to carry out a program of updating, renovating, repairing, replacing and refurbishing each Property upon its acquisition in order to reposition the Property's standard and quality of finish within the surrounding market. Depending on the condition of a Property at the time of acquisition, such repositioning may range from a relative limited updating of its finishes to an extensive renovation and refurbishment of the Property. Pursuant to the Services Agreement, the Operating LP will pay to the Operating GP the Repositioning Fee, being an amount equal to 5% of the costs incurred in completing the repositioning program.

Title to the Properties - In order to accommodate the expected requirements of Lenders and to segregate any risks of ownership between Properties, the Operating LP intends to have title to each of the Properties registered in the name of a separate, single-purpose entity, which will likely be a limited partnership established in the State in which the Property is located.

Management of Properties - The Operating LP intends to engage an affiliate of the Operating GP - Thrive Communities Inc. (the "Property Manager") to provide ongoing day-to-day management of the Rental Operations of the Properties. The Operating GP expects that the fee payable to the Property Manager will be 3% of the gross revenue from the managed Property or Properties.

Holding Co Loan - A portion of the funds received by the Investment LP from the issuance of Investment LP Units to Limited Partners may be advanced by the Investment LP to the Holding Co as a loan pursuant to the Holding Co Loan Agreement. Such portion will be determined by the Investment GP from time to time. The Holding Co Loan Agreement will set out the terms and conditions of the Holding Co Loan, including the term, interest rate, security and other provisions, all of which will be based on the terms and conditions for similar loans then applicable in the marketplace. Interest on the Holding Co Loan will be payable by the Holding Co in priority to the payment of dividends on the Holding Co Shares held by Investment Co. The proceeds of such a loan will be used in the acquisition, repositioning, or conversion of Properties. The purpose of such loan is to implement a tax strategy intended to reduce the overall income tax burden to Unitholders.

Conversion of the Properties - From time to time, the Operating GP will identify certain of the Properties to be appropriate for Conversion. The Operating GP will base such determination on the physical status of the Property, its location, the status of the real estate sales market in which the Property is located, and other factors which, in the opinion of the Operating GP, will result in a positive return from the Conversion.

Each Conversion of a Property will be conducted by the Operating GP and the respective Developer pursuant to a joint venture, partnership or other joint relationship, pursuant to which the Developer will provide property development and construction management services. Pursuant to such agreement, the Developer will be entitled to receive a development management fee equal to 5% of all costs of the Conversion, including the Fair Market Value of the Property at the time the Conversion is commenced, all soft costs of development, all hard costs of construction, financing costs, marketing costs and all other costs incurred in respect of the Conversion. In addition, the Developer will be entitled to 35% of the profits earned in the Conversion.

2.3 Development of the Business

Establishment of the Trust

The Trust was established on January 24, 2012. To date, the Trust has issued 6,292,266 Class F Units and 355,907 Class A Units, for total aggregate proceeds of $94,103,644 net of redemptions.

The Trust has been established to provide investors attractive returns via acquiring, repositioning, and holding rental apartment properties, some of which may be converted to condominiums as and when market conditions allow. Over the past 25 years, principals of the Operating GP have acquired over US$1 billion of apartments and managed more than 15,000 units in the Greater Seattle Area and along the west coast of the United States. From 2003 to 2008, the principals of the Operating GP converted almost 700 rental apartment units to condominiums with an average profit margin of approximately 25%. Collectively, the principals of the Operating GP have 84 years of experience in rental apartment transactions, property management, condominium conversions, portfolio assemblies, and real estate investment trust management. For more information on the experience of the principals of the Trustee see Item 3.2 – “Affiliates and Management Experience”.

Why Apartments?

According to the National Council of Real Estate Investment Fiduciaries (NCREIF) apartments delivered the highest returns and lowest volatility from 1992-2011 as compared to other real estate classes. The principals of the Operating GP believe that apartments are poised for continued strong returns in the coming decade due to the factors outlined below.

Homeownership rates in the US have declined from a peak of approximately 69% in 2004 / 2005 toward their long term historical average of just over 65%, according to the US Census Bureau. Every 1% decline in the home ownership rate creates the potential for an additional 1.1 million rental households in the United States. This trend is similar in the Greater Seattle Area where homeownership rates have fallen by 5.4% since 2005 creating strong demand for rental apartments. In King and Snohomish counties alone, a 1% decrease in the home ownership rate creates potential demand for 10,600 rental units.

From 2008 to 2010, household formation in the US dropped from a 20-year historical average of 1.24 million new households per year to approximately 500,000 new households per year, according to data from the US Census Bureau. This deficit of household formation represents a cumulative shortfall of 2.2 million homes, indicating significant pent up demand for housing.

Millennials (ages 18-34), a generation 80+ million strong and equal in size to the Baby Boom, are entering their prime rental years creating favorable demographic conditions for rental apartments. Furthermore, due to the recent recession in the United States, Millennials have delayed household formation choosing instead to stay at home. According to the US Census Bureau, 31% of individuals 18-34 years of age are now living at home compared to a long term historical average of 28%. A movement back to the long-term average could create an additional 1.5 to 2.2 million individuals seeking housing, all of whom have a higher propensity to rent than other age cohorts.

Why Seattle?

Seattle has an impressive employment base and strong employment outlook. Fortune 500 employers such as Amazon, Microsoft, Boeing, and Costco along with a thriving technology sector are powering employment growth. According to Conway Pedersen Economics, the Greater Seattle Area added over 56,000 jobs in 2016 and the region is expected to add a total of 200,000 jobs by the end of the decade. Further, the Greater Seattle Area is growing jobs faster than the rest of the nation at 2.5% versus the national average of 1.5% for the twelve months ending August 2017.

Seattle has a strong rental market. A large Millennial population is driving strong demand for rental apartments with the annual effective rent growth rate at 3.8% in the Greater Seattle Area as of September 30th, 2017 according to Axiometrics Inc.. Regional vacancy rates are down to 4.7%. The Seattle area is already home to a greater proportion of Millennials than the national average with 28% of the population being between ages 18-34, compared the national average of 23%.

Seattle has significant geographic barriers to growth. Development in Seattle is constrained by the Pacific Ocean, Lake Washington, and Lake Sammamish, making it difficult to introduce new supply in desirable locations at a competitive price. Research by ING Clarion has shown that markets with constraints to growth tend to have higher rent levels, greater rent growth and stronger capital value growth over time.

Seattle is landlord friendly. Seattle does not have any meaningful rent controls or restrictions on the conversion of rental apartments to for-sale condominiums. Property economics can be improved quickly, often within 12 months of acquisition, and apartment owners have the flexibility of capitalizing on any resurgence of the for-sale housing market through condominium conversions.

Seattle's housing market is improving. According to the National Association of Realtors, for-sale home prices in the Greater Seattle Area have risen 12% from the previous year. Northwest Multiple Listings Service reports that a month's supply, an indicator of housing inventory available for sale, was 1.13 in King County, and 1.26 in Snohomish County, for the month ending September 30, 2017. Balanced market conditions are typically in the range of 4-6 months of supply indicating that current market supply is limited. An improving housing market may create opportunities for condominium conversions over time.

Business & Investment Strategy

The Trust intends to pursue the following strategies to achieve its objectives:

Acquisition Strategy

The Operating GP will seek to acquire underperforming properties that offer opportunities to add value through property repositioning and, where appropriate, through condominium conversions.

The Operating GP will focus its acquisition efforts in markets in the western United States that have barriers to growth, a stable and growing employment base, a highly-educated workforce, favorable rental demographics, and strong rents and occupancies. The initial target market for acquisitions will be the Greater Seattle Area.

Properties acquired will typically have a purchase price in the $10 to $45 million range, will have been constructed in the last 10 to 25 years, and will be close to, but not in, the core of target markets. Properties will be in average to good condition for their age at the time of acquisition and may have deferred maintenance issues. When possible and appropriate, the Operating GP will acquire Properties in close proximity to those that it already holds, thereby allowing for economies of scale in management.

Financing Strategy

Investments will be managed in a disciplined manner, with a focus on balance sheet management to ensure that the Trust maintains a prudent capital structure and conservative financial profile. Property specific financing will typically not exceed 75% of the Property's Fair Market Value upon acquisition. Five year or shorter fixed or variable rate financing may be used to finance the acquisition of Properties. Terms of such financing may include an interest only period. After repositioning and stabilization of a Property, acquisition financing may be replaced by five, seven or ten-year fixed rate amortizing debt. The Trust aims to stagger debt maturities in order to mitigate interest rate risk and re-financing exposure in any particular period. The Trust intends to prudently manage the overall long term leverage of the portfolio to below a 2:1 debt to equity ratio. To date, the total sum of mortgage loans on the properties is US$97.4 million or 44.9% of the Fair Market Value of the Properties as at September 30, 2017. For more information on the financing securing the Trust's current portfolio, see Item 2.2 – "The Trust's Business – Properties Acquired To-Date."

Portfolio and Property Management Strategy

The Operating GP intends to generate stable cash flow from the Properties through increasing occupancy levels, optimizing average rental rates and prudently managing Property costs. The Operating GP has retained the Property Manager to provide property management services. The Property Manager's experienced management team plans to create value through repositioning, enhancing Property operations through superior management, and by developing a true sense of community.

Property management services provided by the Property Manager include but are not limited to: on-site supervision and day-to-day management of each of the Properties, leasing, budgeting, repairs and maintenance, banking and necessary administrative and related services.

The Property Manager will be paid an expected fee of 3% of Gross Revenue of the Property. The Operating GP believes this fee is reasonable and competitive with the cost of similar services provided by independent third party property managers.

Property Portfolio

The Trust's Property Portfolio consists of nine Properties, as follows: (i) Station Nine, formerly known as Country Gables was acquired on December 19, 2012 for US$13.95 million; (ii) Bentley House was acquired on June 1, 2012 for US$14.00 million; (iii) Northline was acquired on June 23, 2014 for US$14.00 million; (iv) Borgata was acquired on October 15, 2014 for US$17.9 million; (v) Starboard was acquired on February 4, 2015 for US$15.65M; (vi) Fort Lawton was acquired February 13, 2015 for US$10.5M; (vii) Starboard Condominium was acquired March 27, 2015 for US$132,000 and Starboard Condominium was acquired June 19, 2015 for US$173,000; (viii) Woodcreek was acquired November 16, 2015 for US$33,100,000; and (ix) Artesia by The Lake was acquired December 15, 2016 for US$40,500,000. ⁽¹⁾ Spread indicates the margin over the Interest Rate Benchmark that comprises the interest rate payable to the Lender. The spread, added to the Interest Rate Benchmark, comprises the interest rate payable. The Interest Rate Benchmark will vary with economic conditions.

Total debt on the Properties acquired to date is US$97.4 million, compared to a total fair market value as at September 30, 2017 of US$216.8 million, equating to a total loan-to-value ratio of 44.92%.

In the case of Starboard, a subsidiary of the Operating LP entered into a Rate Cap Agreement with SMBC Capital Markets, Inc. This agreement sets a maximum cap on the Interest Rate Benchmark of 3.72% until February 5, 2019.

These Rate Cap Agreements were entered into as a hedge against interest rate risk associated with variable rate mortgage loans against these properties. In the Bentley House and Station Nine cases, the variable rate mortgage loans have since been retired but each Rate Cap Agreement continues in effect until its respective maturity date.

Bentley House

Bentley House is located in Issaquah, in King County. The property was developed with the vision of delivering the premier luxury condo project in the Kirkland, Bellevue, Issaquah sub-markets. The building was constructed as a 45-unit plus 2-guest suite for sale property with a concrete and steel structure, dedicated underground RV parking bays, executive office space complete with a boardroom, and a disproportionately high amount of common amenity space. The building was constructed for a reported total cost of US$26.5 million and was completed in December 2010.

Because delivery followed the housing crash, the owner elected to operate the building as a rental apartment building. The final portion of planned expenditures relating primarily to the amenity space including furniture, interior decorating, exercise equipment, etc. were cut from the project. The building was quickly leased up in less than three months at the worst time of the year, resulting in below market rents.

The property was purchased for US$14.0 million in June 2012 in an off-market transaction, meaning that the property was not publicly listed for sale. Approximately $1.1 million was invested in completing the last portion of common area amenity space including renovations and the fit out of the foyer, great room, athletic facilities, meeting spaces and roof top deck. A dog run was also installed to complete the amenity package.

Since its acquisition, average monthly rents have increased from US$1,650 per unit to US$3,033 per unit per month, with the current occupancy rate at 95.0%. An appraisal by Colliers International as September 30, 2017 values the property at US$23,410,000.

As a result of the repositioning and improved performance metrics, management was able to refinance Bentley House on October 31, 2014. The refinancing resulted in increased cash of US$3.9 million. Additionally, the interest only period was extended through November 1, 2015 through a five year loan with an all-in rate of 3.19% and a 12 months interest only period.

Station Nine (Formerly Country Gables)

Station Nine is located approximately 25 miles northeast of downtown Seattle in Lynnwood. This property was built in 1989 by a private investor from whom the Trust acquired the property. The property suffered from meaningful deferred maintenance, poor presentation and unprofessional property management.

The property was purchased for US$13.95 million in an off-market transaction, meaning that the property was not publicly listed for sale. Given the deferred maintenance and poor aesthetics of the property, an extensive repositioning program was undertaken, with an additional US$3.8 million invested in the property.

The repositioning included significant investment in the physical building to address deferred maintenance issues, professionalizing on-site management, enforcing payment of delinquencies, and improving the overall tenant profile. The property was also rebranded as Station Nine to help establish a new and positive perception of the community. Resident satisfaction has improved dramatically.

Since acquiring the property in December 2012 monthly average rents have increased from US$903 per unit to US$1,507 per unit per month, with the current occupancy rate at 94.6%. An appraisal by Colliers International as at September 30, 2017 values the property at US$28,120,000.

As a result of the repositioning and improved performance metrics, management was able to refinance Station Nine in April 2014. The refinancing resulted in increased cash of US$3.2 million. Additionally, the interest only period was extended through May 2021 through a 7-year interest only loan with an all-in rate of 3.98%.

Northline (Formerly Woodland Pointe)

Northline is located in the City of Seattle approximately 10 miles north of downtown. It consists of 111 apartment homes within 16 two-storey buildings. The property is situated on approximately 3 acres, providing ample green space somewhat unique to the City of Seattle which tends toward higher density. Northline was built in 1978 and was renovated in 2009 but has suffered due to poor management.

The Trust acquired the property off-market (meaning that the property was not publicly listed for sale) for US$14,000,000 on June 18, 2014. The Trust saw an opportunity to dramatically improve the property with a modest renovation budget and significant management improvements.

The property went through a repositioning including exterior painting, extensive curb appeal and landscaping improvements, rebranding with new marketing materials, and a modernization of the common area amenities. There were also three homes that were not renovated in 2009 and 14 that need washer and dryers installed. This work was completed as part of the redevelopment plan.

Northline's current occupancy is 93.8%. Since its acquisition, average monthly rents have increased from US$1,007 per unit to US$1,440 per unit per month. An appraisal by Colliers International as at September 30, 2017 values the property at US$22,110,000.

Borgata Apartments and Townhomes

Borgata is located in the City of Renton approximately 10 miles southeast of downtown Seattle, in close proximity to Valley Medical and Boeing Renton. It consists of 83 apartment homes within 16 residential buildings, a mix of flats and townhomes with vaulted ceilings and desirable floorplans. The property is situated on approximately 8 acres and was built in 2002. The Trust sees this as a potential conversion given the great location, views and high percentage of owner vs. rental occupied housing nearby. Borgata is currently 94.1% occupied with an average market rent of US$1,968 per unit per month. An appraisal by Colliers International as at September 30, 2017 values the property at US$23,220,000.

Starboard (Formerly Village at Juanita Beach)

Starboard is located in the City of Kirkland's Juanita area. Built in 1986, Starboard is a garden-style apartment community located on 3.27 acres within walking distance to Juanita Beach on Lake Washington. The property is comprised of 80 apartment homes, in 8 separate 10-unit buildings which are part of a larger condominium project containing a total of 130 units. The apartment homes feature one bedroom-one bath, and two bedroom-one + one-half bath homes, with an average unit size of 948 square feet. The community offers a green, low-density experience while being just blocks away from the urban shops and dining at Kirkland's Juanita Village.

Starboard was acquired for US$15.65 million on February 4, 2015 and US$4.5 million has been allocated to property repositioning. Repositioning included full renovation of the apartment interiors and clubhouse amenities, improvements to landscaping, and a new marketing and merchandising strategy. Upon stabilization, the Trust is targeting an effective yield of approximately 6% on invested capital. Starboard is currently 95.0% occupied with an average market rent of US$2,091 per unit per month. An appraisal by Colliers International as at September 30, 2017 values the property at US$26,370,000.

Fort Lawton

Fort Lawton, a former installation of the United States Army consisting of 26 historical residences, is located on over 9 acres within Discovery Park, a 534-acre park in Seattle's Magnolia neighborhood. These picturesque residences are just minutes from Downtown Seattle in a serene park setting that has unobstructed views of Puget Sound and the Olympic Mountains.

The historic charm of Fort Lawton is evident within its single family and townhome units. Constructed in 1904 and 1905 in the Colonial Revival Style, each structure is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and offer two, three, four or five bedroom options that honor the past yet accommodate modern living.

Fort Lawton was acquired for US$10.5 million on February 13, 2015. The Trust intends to substantially refurbish the homes and list them as “for-sale” product taking advantage of the improving Seattle housing market. The Trust anticipates a high demand for these homes given the extensive renovations, unique setting and their historic designation. There have been 22 homes sold through the end of September 30, 2017. There are 4 homes remaining to be sold, 2 of which are still undergoing repair and renovation. The Trust anticipates selling the remaining 2 completed homes by the end of 2017.

Starboard Condominium

Starboard Condominiums are located in the City of Kirkland’s Juanita area. The first one unit condominium was acquired on March 27, 2015 for US$132,000. The second one unit condominium was acquired on June 19, 2015 for US$173,000. The third one unit condominium was acquired on September 22, 2017 for US$195,000. All units are part of the same large condominium project as Starboard apartments.

Woodcreek

Woodcreek is a 164-unit garden-style apartment community located in the City of Lynnwood approximately 21 miles North of downtown Seattle, in close proximity to Boeing Everett and the Alderwood Mall. The community was built in 2000 and is comprised of 14 residential buildings plus a clubhouse on 7.6 acres. The property went through repositioning in 2010 which included updates to the unit interiors and club house. Total costs associated with acquiring the property was $33.72 million and the Trust expects to generate an effective yield of approximately 6% on invested capital. Woodcreek is currently 94.5% occupied with an average market rent of US$1,614 per unit per month. An appraisal by Colliers International as at September 30, 2017 values the property at US$39,640,000.

The community offers a green, low-density experience for residents and is in a strong Seattle submarket anchored by Boeing and related industries.

Artesia by The Lake was acquired for US$40.5 million on December 15, 2016 and a budget of US$4.4 million has been allocated to property repositioning. Repositioning will include full renovation of the apartment interiors and clubhouse amenities, improvements to landscaping, and a new marketing and merchandising strategy. Artesia by The Lake is currently 95.0% occupied with an average market rent of US$1,484 per unit per month. An additional US$557,752 was invested into the repositioning the Property. The financing on the Property in the amount of US$5,322,658 was repaid in full on the date of sale.

Canada Revenue Agency Application

On October 9, 2015, the Trust made application for an advance income tax ruling to the Canada Revenue Agency in respect of then proposed amendments to the Trust Declaration to re-designate its then existing class of trust units, to create a new class of trust units, and to provide the Trustee with the authority to create additional classes of units. Pursuant to the amendments to the Trust Declaration, effective on September 1, 2016, the then existing trust units were re-designated as Class F Units on a one-for-one basis. The Unitholders at the time of the re-designation were not entitled to any proceeds of disposition and the then existing trust units were not cancelled or redeemed. In addition to the amendments to the Trust Declaration, the Services Agreement was amended to reflect a revised management fee structure whereby the annual management fee would equal the aggregate of the following:

- (f) 2.0% of the net asset value of the Investment LP in respect of all Class A Units; plus
- (g) 1.0% of the net asset value of the Investment LP in respect of all Class F Units; plus
- (h) 1.0% of the portion of the net asset value of the Investment LP that is attributable to the Investment GP.

The advance income tax ruling from the CRA confirmed that:

- (a) the amendments to the Trust Declaration would not result in a resettlement of the Trust so as to cause a disposition by the Trust of its assets;
- (b) the re-designation of the then outstanding trust units into Class F Units would not result in a disposition by the Unitholders of their trust units held immediately prior to the time of the re-designation;
- (c) any future re-designation of Class A Units into Class F Units, as applicable, would not result in a disposition by the Unitholder of their Units held at the time of such future re-designation; and
- (d) the proposed transactions contemplated by the application, including the changes to the management fee and the proposed methodology of income allocation, would not cause subsection 104(7.1) of the Tax Act to apply so as to deny the deduction by the Trust of any amount it is otherwise entitled to deduct under paragraph 104(6)(b) of the Tax Act.

2.4 Long Term Objectives

The long term objective of the Trust is to issue sufficient Units to be able to acquire sufficient Investment LP Units to indirectly enable the Operating LP to:

- (a) expand its asset base and increase funds from operations through a program of acquisitions targeting underperforming properties which offer opportunities for value add through active management, repositioning, and where appropriate, conversion to for-sale condominiums, and

ITEM 5 SECURITIES OFFERED

5.1 Terms of Units

Units Offered and Subscription Price

The securities offered pursuant to this Offering Memorandum are Class A Units and Class F Units of the Trust, which comprise the only authorized Units of the Trust as of the date hereof. See Item 2.3 “Development of the Business – Canada Revenue Agency Application”.

The price per Class A Unit is $17.3241 or US$13.8818 per Class A Unit (calculated based on the Bank of Canada closing exchange rate of $0.8013 on September 30, 2017) (issuable to investors who purchase their Units through registered securities dealers). The price per Class F Units is $17.3241 or US$13.8818 per Class F Unit (calculated based on the Bank of Canada closing exchange rate of $0.8013 on September 30, 2017) (issuable to investors who purchase their Units directly from the Trust). Such price will fluctuate based on changes in the Limited Partners’ Ending Net Equity from time to time.

The Class A Units and Class F Units are identical save for the fact that holders of the Class A Units will be entitled to the same proportionate share of discretionary distributions from the Trust as holders of the Class F Units, less certain equalizing adjustment (the “Equalizing Adjustment”) to reflect the Additional Management Fee, as defined herein, attributable only to the Class A Units. The Equalizing Adjustment to each Class A Unit will be calculated as follows:

- (a) the Additional Management Fee, net of the deferred tax asset generated by such Additional Management Fee, divided by
- (b) the number of Class A Units outstanding.

The percentage of Management Fee charged in respect of the Class A Units will be one percentage point higher (the “Additional Management Fee”) than that of Class F Units. With the Additional Management Fee, the Operating GP will pay trailer fees on all future Class A Units. The trailer fees in respect of the grandfathered units (i.e., trust units outstanding prior to the re-designation discussed under “Canada Revenue Agency Application” the sale of which involved registered securities dealers) will continue to be paid by Investment LP. See also Item 5.1 “Terms of Securities Offered – Trust Declaration”.

Trust Declaration

The rights and obligations of the Unitholders are governed by the Trust Declaration made as of January 24, 2012 and as amended March 25, 2013, January 1, 2015, April 9, 2015 and September 1, 2016 among the Trustee, the settlor of the Trust, and all persons who become holders of Units as provided therein. The following is a summary of certain material provisions of the Trust Declaration. This summary does not purport to be complete and reference should be to the Trust Declaration itself, a copy of which is available from the Trustee. Capitalized terms in this summary regarding the Units which are not defined in this Offering Memorandum are defined in the Trust Declaration.

Class A Units; Class F Units

The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of redeemable Class A Units and Class F Units. Except as provided in the Trust Declaration Indenture and this Offering Memorandum, each Unit entitles the Unitholder to the same rights and obligations as any other Unitholder and no Unitholder is entitled to any privilege, priority or preference in relation to any other Unitholders.

Subject to the provisions of the Trust Declaration relating to distributions, as described below, each Unit represents an equal undivided beneficial interest or share in any distribution from the Trust (whether of Distributable Cash Flow (Trust), Trust Income, Net Realized Capital Gains or other amounts, other than amounts in respect of a distribution in specie on a redemption of Units specifically to Unitholders who redeem their Units) and in Trust Property in the event of the termination or winding-up of the Trust. Each Unit entitles the holder of record thereof to one vote at all meetings of Unitholders. All Units rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority.

Units of different Classes may have different rights, benefits and other attributes from Units of other Classes. Subject to limitations and requirements determined from time to time by the Trustee, in its sole discretion, acting reasonably, and stated in this Offering Memorandum, any Unit (other than a Class F Unit) of a particular Class of Units may be re-designated by the Trustee as a Unit of another Class of Units, provided, however, that any such re-designation will not entitle the holder of the Units which are the subject of such re-designation to any Trust Property, or any redemption proceeds.

Classes of Units

The Trustee will have the power and authority, from time to time, for and on behalf of the Trust, to create one or more Classes of Units on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Trustee, provided that such creation does not adversely affect the pecuniary value of the interest of any Unitholder in the Trust. All of the Units in any Class of Units will have the same rights, benefits and other attributes, and will rank equally, with every other Unit in such Class of Units and no Unit in a Class of Units will have any preference or priority over any other Unit of such Class of Units. The number of Units issued in any Class of Units is unlimited, unless the number of Units for such Class of Units is limited at the time the Class of Units is established.

Except in respect of the Class A Units and the Class F Units, before the issue of a Class of Units, the Trustee will execute a Supplemental Indenture creating such Class of Units and establishing the terms thereof and confirming that the Unitholders who hold Units issued as part of such Class of Units are entitled to the benefits of the Trust in respect of such Class of Units.

Any Units in any Class of Units created by Supplemental Indenture will:

- (a) be designated by a letter by the Trustee; and
- (b) have such rights and restrictions with respect to subscription price and other terms and conditions of their offering and manner of subscription, sharing in the property of the Trust and other matters as the Trustee determines to be appropriate, which rights and restrictions may be different from the rights and restrictions which pertain to the Units of any other Class of Units.

At the option of the Trustee, the maximum number of Units of any Class of Units may be limited, such limitation to be expressed in the Supplemental Indenture providing for the creation of the Class of Units.

Distributions

Distributions of Distributable Cash Flow

The Trustee will, in respect of each Distribution Period, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable to the Unitholders of record at the close of business on each Distribution Record Date, all or any part of the Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) for the Distribution Period.

The Trustee, in its discretion, acting reasonably, will, in respect of each Distribution Period, allocate for distribution an amount equal to Grossed-Up Distributable Cash Flow pro rata among the Classes of Units based on the number of Units outstanding in each Class. Class Specific Expenses shall then be applied to reduce the amount of Grossed-Up Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) allocable to the Class to which such Class Specific Expenses relate as the Trustee may determine in its sole discretion.

The amount of Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) determined and allocated to a particular Class in accordance with the Trust Declaration will be payable to each Unitholder of record of each Class on such Distribution Record Date pro rata in proportion to the number of Units of such Class held as of record by such Unitholder on such Distribution Record Date. Generally, any Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) that has been declared to be payable to Unitholders in respect of a Distribution Period will be paid in cash on the Distribution Payment Date in respect of such Distribution Period.

Computation of Distributable Cash Flow (Trust)

The cash flow of the Trust for any Distribution Period will be equal to:

- (a) the sum of all cash amounts received by the Trust for or in respect of such Distribution Period, including the amounts received as a limited partner holding Investment LP Units in the Investment LP pursuant to the terms of the Investment LP Agreement and all other income, interest, distributions, dividends, proceeds from the investment in the Investment LP Units (other than by way of security interest), returns of capital and repayments of indebtedness, as well as all amounts received by the Trust in any prior Distribution Period to the extent not previously distributed; less
- (b) all costs and expenses of the Trust that, in the opinion of the Trustee, may reasonably be considered to have accrued and become owing in respect of, or which relate to, such Distribution Period or a prior Distribution Period if not accrued in such prior period; and less
- (c) all amounts payable in cash that relate to the redemption or repurchase of Units and that have become payable by the Trust in such Distribution Period or prior Distribution Period, provided that any funds borrowed by the Trust or the proceeds of the issuance of Units or other securities of the Trust and related transactions in connection therewith will not be included in the calculations of Cash Flow in respect of any Distribution Period.

Distributable Cash Flow (Trust) will be equal to the Cash Flow for such Distribution Period less any amount that the Trustee may reasonably consider to be necessary to provide for the payment of any costs or expenses, including any tax liability of the Trust, that have been or are reasonably expected to be incurred in the activities and operations of the Trust (to the extent that such costs or expenses have not otherwise been taken into account in the calculation of the Cash Flow of the Trust) and less such reserves or amounts as are, in the opinion of the Trustee, necessary or desirable.

Computation of Income and Net Realized Capital Gains

Trust Income for any taxation year of the Trust will be determined by the Trustee as the amount by which the income of the Trust for such year computed in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act, other than paragraph 82(l)(b) and subsection 104(6) thereof, and taking into account such other amounts and adjustments as are determined in the discretion of the Trustee regarding the calculation of income for the purposes of determining the “taxable income” of the Trust, exceeds each amount determined by the Trustee in respect of any non-capital loss for a prior taxation year that the Trust is permitted by the Tax Act to deduct in computing the taxable income of the Trust for such year; provided, however, that capital gains and capital losses will be excluded from the computation of Trust Income and, if an amount has been designated by the Trust under subsection 104(19) of the Tax Act, such designation shall be disregarded.

Net Realized Capital Gains for any taxation year of the Trust will be determined by the Trustee as the amount, if any, by which the aggregate of the capital gains of the Trust realized in such year exceeds the aggregate of the capital losses of the Trust realized in such year and each amount determined by the Trustee in respect of any net capital loss for a prior taxation year that the Trust is permitted by the Tax Act to deduct in computing the taxable income of the Trust for such year multiplied by the reciprocal of the fraction applicable in determining the proportion of a capital gain for such prior taxation year that is a taxable capital gain.

Allocations and Distributions of Trust Income, Net Realized Capital Gains, Capital and Other Amounts

The Trustee shall allocate, declare payable and/or make distributions, from time to time, out of Trust Income, Net Realized Capital Gains, the capital of the Trust or otherwise, (other than amounts designated payable to redeeming Unitholders) in any year, in such amount or amounts, and in respect of such Classes, and on such dates and to Unitholders of record of such Classes on such dates, as the Trustee may determine, acting reasonably, may determine, having regard to the amount of cash distributions paid or payable in respect of such Classes and to such Unitholders of such Class during such taxation year. In determining amounts to be allocated to a Class of Units as set out above, the Trustee shall:

- (i) divide an amount equal to the sum of Trust Income or such other amounts as the Trustee determines (other than amounts designated payable to redeeming Unitholders) and any Class Specific Expenses among the Classes of Units in proportion to the amount of cash distributions paid or payable in respect of each Class of Units for such taxation year; and
- (ii) reduce the amounts determined in (i) by Class Specific Expenses that are attributable to each Class.

Having regard to the intention that the Trustee allocate, distribute and make payable to Unitholders all of the Trust Income, Net Realized Capital Gains and other applicable amounts so that the Trust will not have any liability for tax under Part I of the Tax Act in any taxation year, on the last day of each taxation year of the Trust the following amounts will, without any further actions on the part of the Trustee, be automatically due and payable to Unitholders of record at the close of business on such day of each year (whether or not such day is a Business Day):

- (a) the amount of Trust Income for such year, other than (i) any Trust Income realized by the Trust as a result of a redemption of Units and that are payable to redeeming, and (ii) any other Trust Income that was previously paid or made payable to Unitholders in such year; and
- (b) the amount of Net Realized Capital Gains for such year, other than (i) any capital gains that are realized by the Trust as a result of a redemption of Units and that are payable to redeeming Unitholders, and (ii) any other capital gains that were previously paid or made payable to Unitholders in such year.

Character of Distributions and Designations

In accordance with and to the extent permitted by the Tax Act and analogous provisions of any applicable provincial income tax legislation, the Trustee in each year will make designations in respect of the amounts paid or payable to Unitholders for such amounts that the Trustee considers to be reasonable in all of the circumstances, including designations relating to taxable dividends received by the Trust in the year on shares of taxable Canadian corporations, net capital gains realized by the Trust in the year and foreign source income of and foreign taxes paid by the Trust for the year, as well as elect under subsection 104(13.1) and/or subsection 104(13.2) of the Tax Act that income be taxed to the Trust, rather than to the Unitholders. Distributions paid or payable to Unitholders will be distributed from Trust Income, Net Realized Capital Gains, trust capital or other items in such amounts as the Trustee may, in its absolute discretion, determine and allocate to the Unitholders in the same proportions as distributions received by the Unitholders, subject to the discretion of the Trustee to adopt an allocation method which the Trustee considers to be more reasonable in the circumstances. For greater certainty, any distribution of Net Realized Capital Gains will include the non-taxable portion of the capital gains of the Trust that are encompassed in such distribution.

Method of Payment of Distributions

Where the Trustee determines that the Trust does not have cash in an amount sufficient to make payment of the full amount of any distribution that has been declared payable, or otherwise made payable, on the due date for such payment or for any other reason cannot pay the distribution in cash, or the Trustee otherwise elects in respect of any such distribution at the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustee, the payment will be distributed to the Unitholders in the form of additional Units, or fractions of Units, if necessary or desirable, having a value equal to the difference between the amount of such distribution declared to be payable and the amount of cash that has been determined by the Trustee to be available for the payment of such distribution. Such additional Units will be issued pro rata in proportion to the number of Units held as of record by such Unitholder on such date. Such additional Units will be issued pursuant to applicable exemptions under applicable securities laws, discretionary exemptions granted by applicable securities regulatory authorities or a prospectus or similar filing. Any such Units issued are then consolidated with the existing Units.

Special Distribution Provisions

To the extent distributions are calculated in respect of a Distribution Period and payable at the end of such Distribution Period, if for any reason, including the termination of the Trust, such Distribution Period is not completed or such amounts are no longer payable, then the distribution will be pro-rated to the end of the shortened Distribution Period and be payable at the end of such shortened Distribution Period.

The Trustee will have the right but not the obligation to distribute and allocate Distributable Cash, Trust Income, Net Realized Capital Gains and any other applicable amounts among Unitholders in such a manner so as to ensure where possible that they are treated equitably taking into account differences that may arise as a result of the acquisition of Units at different times in a fiscal year or in different fiscal calendar years.

Redemption

Right of Redemption

Each Unitholder will be entitled to require the Trust to redeem at any time or from time to time at the demand of the Unitholder all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder at the prices determined and payable in accordance with the Trust Declaration.

Exercise of Redemption Right

A Unitholder holding Units wishing to redeem the whole or any part of his or her Units (a “Redemption”) may deliver a notice of such desire (the “Redemption Notice”) to the Trustee at any time.

Effect of Redemption Notice

Upon receipt by the Trust of the Redemption Notice, the Unitholder shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption (other than to receive the redemption payment therefor) including the right to receive any distributions thereon that are declared payable to the Unitholders of record on a date that is subsequent to the date of receipt by the Trustee of the Redemption Notice. Units shall be considered to be tendered for redemption on the date that the Trustee has, to the satisfaction of the Trustee, received the Redemption Notice and further documents or evidence the Trustee may reasonably require with respect to the identity, capacity or authority of the person giving such notice.

The payment in cash by the Trust of the redemption price of Units will reduce the amount of cash available to the Trust for the payment of distributions to the holders of Units, since the payment of redemptions will take priority over the payment of cash distributions. See Item 8 “Risk Factors”.

Redemption Price

Subject to applicable laws and the conditions listed below, the Trust will redeem the Units specified in such Redemption Notice. The price per Unit payable upon redemption will be equal to either:

- (a) where the Units are listed on a stock exchange or similar market, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) 95% of the market price of the Units during the 10 trading day period after the redemption date; and (ii) 100% of the closing market price of the Units on the redemption date; or
- (b) where the Units are not listed on a stock exchange or similar market, 95% of the aggregate of the Trust’s proportionate share of the Investment LP Value of the most recent calendar quarter that ends prior to the Redemption Date divided by the number of Units outstanding at such date; or
- (c) notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee may, in its sole discretion, elect to pay a Redemption Price per Unit which is equal to 100% of the value set out in Section (b) above to Unitholders whose Units are redeemed pursuant to terms and conditions of the Trust Declaration (the “100% Redemption Provision”).

For greater certainty, the 100% Redemption, which may be subject to the following, without limitations, additional conditions, which may be amended from time to time, at the sole discretion of the Trustee:

- (a) The 100% Redemption will only apply to Units which have been held by a Unitholder for a minimum of one year prior to the receipt of a Redemption Notice in respect thereof;
- (b) Payment of the redemption price may be subject to a 6 month, or longer, waiting period;

- (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Trust Declaration, any Units tendered for redemption pursuant to the 100% Redemption will retain the rights set out in the Trust Declaration until the redemption price is paid, including the right to receive distributions; and
- (d) All future distribution reinvestment plan Units earned by the Units tendered for redemption will be added to the total Units to be redeemed pursuant to the Redemption Notice.

Payment of Redemption Price

The redemption price per Unit multiplied by the number of Units tendered for Redemption will be paid to a Unitholder by way of a cash payment no later than the last day of the calendar month following the calendar quarter in which the Units were tendered for redemption, provided that:

- (a) the total amount payable by the Trust by cash payment in respect of the redemption of Units for that calendar quarter will not exceed $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of the aggregate Subscription Price of all Units that were issued and outstanding at the start of such calendar quarter;
- (b) the total amount payable by the Trust by cash payment in respect of the redemption of Units in any twelve month period ending at the end of that calendar quarter will not exceed 2% of the aggregate subscription price of all Units that were issued and outstanding at the start of such twelve month period; and
- (c) in the event that the Units are listed on a stock exchange or similar market, the normal trading of the Units is not suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Units are listed for trading on the redemption date or for more than five trading days during the 10 day trading period commencing immediately after the redemption date.

If any of the conditions in paragraphs (a) to (c) above preclude the payment of the redemption price in cash (and the Trustee does not, in its sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of all Units tendered for redemption in any particular calendar quarter), the redemption price shall be paid and satisfied by way of either of the following methods to be selected by the Trustee using its sole discretion:

- (a) the issuance and delivery of a number of Trust Notes, each in the principal amount of $100, having an aggregate principal amount equal to the redemption price per Unit multiplied by the number of Units tendered for redemption; or
- (b) a distribution in specie to the Unitholder of a number of Debt Securities (each in the principal amount of $100), having an aggregate principal amount equal to the redemption price per Unit multiplied by the number of Units tendered for redemption; or
- (c) a distribution in specie to the Unitholder of a number of Investment LP Units with an aggregate value (having regard to the Investment LP Unit Value at that time) equal to the aggregate redemption price of the Units tendered for redemption.

Units will be redeemed according to the order in which Redemption Notices are received.

Trust Notes, Debt Securities and Investment LP Units received as a result of redemptions of Units will generally not be qualified investments for Deferred Plans, and this could give rise to adverse consequences to a Deferred Plan and/or its annuitant, beneficiary or holder, including the redeeming Unitholder becoming subject to a penalty tax. Accordingly, purchasers which are Deferred Plans should consult their own tax advisors before deciding to exercise the redemption rights attached to the Units. See Item 8 – “Risk Factors”.

Forced Redemption Upon Non-Residency

At no time may “non-residents” of Canada (as defined in the Tax Act) be the beneficial owners of more than 49% of the Units, nor may they beneficially own any rights or options that may entitle them to acquire Units that would result in more than 49% of the Units, at any time, being held or beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by non-residents. If the Trustee becomes aware that more than 49% of the Units are held by non-residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustee may require the redemption of Units by a non-resident Unitholder or Unitholders, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustee may determine. The redemption proceeds payable for each Unit to be redeemed will be equal to 95% of the lesser of the subscription price and the amount payable to a redeeming Unitholder in the event of a Redemption of a Unit, determined on the day on which the Trustee issues the redemption notice.

Meetings of Unitholders and Resolutions

Meetings of Unitholders

The Trustee may, at any time, convene a meeting of the Unitholders generally or of any Class of Unitholders and will be required to convene a meeting on receipt of a request in writing of Unitholders holding, in aggregate, 15% or more of the Units of a Class of Units then outstanding. Any matter to be considered at a meeting of Unitholders, other than certain matters requiring the approval of Unitholders by Special Resolution, will require the approval of Unitholders by an Ordinary Resolution.

Quorum

A quorum for any meeting of Unitholders generally or a Class of Unitholder, as applicable, convened to consider such matter will consist of two or more Unitholders present in person or by proxy and representing not less than 10% of the Units or Units of a Class of Units, as applicable, then outstanding. If a quorum is not present at a meeting within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the meeting, the meeting, if convened pursuant to a request of Unitholders, will be cancelled, but otherwise will be adjourned to another day, not less than 10 days later, selected by the Trustee and notice will be given to the Unitholders of such adjourned meeting. The Unitholders present at any adjourned meeting will constitute a quorum.

Voting Rights

Each Unitholder is entitled to one vote per Unit held. In the case of a meeting of a Class of Unitholders, a Unitholder of the Class in question will be entitled to one vote for each Unit held by the Unitholder in that Class.

Class Meetings

Any matter affecting a particular Class of Units alone or affecting a Class of Units differently from other Classes of Units must be approved by Ordinary Resolution of the Unitholders of the affected Class unless such matter:

- (a) is the creation of a Class of Units which has a preference over the affected Class of Units in any Trust Property allocable to the affected Class of Units; or
- (b) would abrogate, diminish or negatively affect any of the rights, privileges or restrictions or conditions in favour of the affected Class of Units, in which case an Special Resolution of the Unitholders of such Class of Units is required.

Powers Exercisable Ordinary Resolution

The following matters require approval by Ordinary Resolution and shall be deemed approved, consented to or confirmed, as the case may be, upon the adoption of such Ordinary Resolution:

- (a) matters relating to the administration of the Trust for which the approval of the Unitholders generally or of the Unitholders of a Class, as applicable, is required by policies of the Securities Authorities or other applicable laws and regulations in effect from time to time, and such policies, laws or regulations do not require approval by Special Resolution;
- (b) subject to the requirements for a Special Resolution, any matter or thing stated in the Trust Declaration to be required to be consented to or approved by the Unitholders generally or of the Unitholders of a Class, as applicable; and

- (c) any matter which the Trustee considers appropriate to present to the Unitholders generally or of the Unitholders of a Class, as applicable, for their confirmation or approval.

Powers Exercisable Special Resolution

The following powers will only be exercisable by Special Resolution passed by all of the Unitholders:

- (a) the amendment of the Trust Declaration (except as provided under “Amendments to the Trust Declaration” below) or changes to the Trust, including changes to the investment objectives of the Trust;
- (b) the removal of the Trustee;
- (c) the appointment of a new trustee;
- (d) the termination of the Trust;
- (e) a reduction in the amount payable on any outstanding Units upon liquidation of the Trust;
- (f) an increase in the liability of any Unitholders; or
- (g) the alteration or elimination of any voting rights pertaining to any outstanding Units.

Notwithstanding the above or any other provision herein, no confirmation, consent or approval shall be sought or have any effect and no Unitholders shall be permitted to effect, confirm, consent to or approve, in any manner whatsoever, where the same increases the obligations of or reduces the compensation payable to or protection provided to the Trustee, except with the prior written consent of the Trustee.

Meeting Information

Prior to each meeting of Unitholders generally or of Unitholders of a Class, as applicable, the Trustee will provide to each Unitholder, together with the notice of the meeting:

- (a) a form of proxy which may be used by a Unitholder to appoint a proxy, who need not be a Unitholder, to attend and act at the meeting on behalf of the Unitholder, in the manner and to the extent authorized by the proxy; and
- (b) all information and certifications required by applicable law.

Termination of the Trust

The Trustee may at any time terminate and dissolve the Trust by giving written notice to each of the then Unitholders of its intention to terminate the Trust at least ninety (90) days before the date on which the Trust is to be terminated. Upon termination, the net assets of the Trust will be distributed to the Unitholders on a pro rata basis. Prior to the termination date, the Trustee will convert the assets of the Trust to cash. After payment of the liabilities of the Trust, each Unitholder registered as such at the close of business on the date fixed as the termination date will be entitled to receive from the Trustee his proportionate share of the value of the Trust in accordance with the number of Units which he then holds.

Amendments to the Trust Declaration

Subject to the restrictions described in “Meetings of Unitholders and Resolutions”, any provision of the Trust Declaration may be amended, deleted, expanded or varied by the Trustee, if the amendment is, in the opinion of counsel for the Trustee, not a material change which adversely affects the pecuniary value of the interest of any Unitholders and does not relate to:

- (a) any material change in the position, authority or responsibility of the Trustee; or
- (b) any change in the investment policy of the Trust or to the Trust Declaration, if such change is material or is otherwise required by the Trust Declaration.

Information and Reports

After the close of each calendar year, the Trust's audited financial statements and report will be distributed no later than 90 days after the end of the fiscal year in accordance with applicable securities legislation. In addition, on or before March 31 in each calendar year, the Trust will forward to each person who received a distribution at any time during the previous calendar year, tax reporting information in such a manner as will enable such person to report the income tax consequences of investment in Units in the Unitholder's annual Canadian income tax return.

Liability of Unitholders

In circumstances where a material obligation of the Trust is created, the Trust Declaration provides that the Trustee will have any such obligations modified so that there is no personal liability of Unitholders. Further, the Trustee will cause the operations of the Trust to be conducted, with the advice of counsel, in such a way and in such jurisdictions as to avoid, as far as possible, any material risk of liability on the Unitholders for claims against the Trust.

As a general rule, the Trustee making investments for the Trust contracts as principal and therefore, subject to contract, the Trustee is liable for all obligations incurred in carrying out such investments for the Trust. However, in cases where the Trustee is unable to obtain written agreement that a material obligation assumed by the Trust is not binding upon the Unitholders personally there is a risk that if the claims made in respect thereof are to be satisfied by the Trust, a Unitholder may be held personally liable for the obligations of the Trust, provided that pursuant to the Trust Declaration such liability is limited to the Units held by such Unitholders. In case of claims made against the Trust which do not arise out of contracts, for example, claims for taxes or claims in tort, personal liability may also arise against Unitholders.

Powers and Responsibilities of the Trustee

The Trustee has exclusive authority to manage the operations and affairs of the Trust and to make all decisions regarding the business of the Trust, and has authority to bind the Trust. The powers, authorities and responsibilities of the Trustee are limited to those expressly set forth in the Trust Declaration. The Trustee is responsible for managing the business and administration of the Trust and the conduct of the affairs of the Trust, including without limitation:

- (c) holding Trust Property (as defined in the Trust Declaration) in safekeeping; retaining moneys, securities, property, assets or investments; investing moneys from time to time forming part of the Trust Property;
- (d) ensuring that the gross subscription proceeds are invested in Investment LP Units;
- (e) borrowing money as necessary to pay distributions to Unitholders, and encumbering Trust Property in respect thereof;
- (f) paying properly incurred expenses out of Trust Property;
- (g) depositing moneys from time to time forming part of the Trust Property in accounts;
- (h) possessing and exercising rights, powers and privileges pertaining to ownership of or interest in Trust Property;
- (i) holding legal title to Trust Property;
- (j) reinvesting income and gains of the Trust and taking other actions besides the mere protection and preservation of the Trust Property;
- (k) appointing the accountants of the Trust;
- (l) appointing the bankers of the Trust;
- (m) ensuring compliance with applicable securities legislation;

- (n) preparing and filing or causing to be prepared and filed all requisite returns, reports and filings;
- (o) monitoring the listing or trading of the Units on a stock exchange or other market;
- (p) monitoring the Trust's tax status as a "mutual fund trust" and, if applicable, a "real estate investment trust" within the meaning of the Tax Act;
- (q) providing all requisite office accommodation and associated facilities;
- (r) providing or causing to be provided to the Trust all other administrative and other services and facilities required by the Trust; and maintaining or causing to be maintained complete records of all transactions in respect of the investment portfolio of the Trust;
- (s) prescribing any instrument provided for or contemplated by the Trust Declaration; and
- (t) remitting distributions to Unitholders, all subject to the terms and conditions set out in the Trust Declaration. The Trust Declaration provides that the Trustee may engage or employ persons in connection with the Trust and pay to them compensation out of Trust Property and may delegate its powers, authorities and duties.

The Trustee or any successor trustee may resign upon 60 days' notice to Unitholders, or may be removed by a Special Resolution of the Unitholders by notice to the Trustee not less than 60 days prior to the date that such removal is to take effect, provided that a successor trustee is appointed or the Trust is terminated. In the event that the Trustee resigns or is removed or becomes incapable of acting or if for any cause a vacancy shall occur in the office of the Trustee, a successor trustee shall forthwith be appointed by the Unitholders by Special Resolution to fill such vacancy. Forthwith following such appointment of a successor trustee, the Trustee shall execute and deliver such documents as such successor trustee may require for the conveyance of any property of the Trust held in the Trustee's name, shall account to the successor trustee for all property of the Trust which the Trustee holds as trustee and shall thereupon be discharged as trustee.

The Trust Declaration provides that the Trustee will be indemnified out of the Trust Property in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which it, any of its officers or directors, or any officer or director of any of its affiliates, is made a party by reason of being or having been a Trustee or officer or director of the Trustee, and/or in respect of any and all taxes, penalties or interest in respect of unpaid taxes or other governmental charges imposed upon such parties as a result of the exercise of his or her powers or duties under the Trust Declaration. However, any such party will not be indemnified in respect of unpaid taxes or other governmental charges that result from his or her failure to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust, or as a result of his or her failure to exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances, or, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, where such party did not have reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful.

In addition, the Trust Declaration contains other customary provisions limiting the liability of the Trustee and indemnifying the Trustee in respect of certain liabilities incurred by it in carrying out its duties.

The Trustee will not receive fees from the Trust for acting as trustee of the Trust, and will be reimbursed by the Trust for all expenses and liabilities which are properly incurred by the Trustee in connection with the activities of the Trust. The Trustee may dispose of any Trust Property on such terms as the Trustee may in its sole discretion determine for the purpose of paying any obligations imposed on the Trust or for repaying any loan hereby authorized.

The Trustee is required to exercise its powers and discharge its duties honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Trust and to exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Conflicts of Interest

The Trustee or a director or officer of the Trustee who directly or indirectly has a material interest in a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Trust, other than an affiliate of the Trust, must disclose in writing to the Trust the nature and extent of such interest forthwith after becoming aware of the material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction. Such director or officer of the Trustee must not vote on any resolution to approve the material contract or transaction, unless the material contract or transaction is one relating primarily to his or her remuneration as a director or officer, one for indemnity or insurance, or one with any affiliate of the Trust.

Where the Trustee or any director or officer of the Trustee fails to disclose his or her interest in a material contract or transaction, the Trustee or any Unitholder, in addition to exercising any other rights or remedies in connection with such failure exercisable at law or in equity, may apply to a court for an order setting aside the material contract or transaction and directing that the Trustee or such director or officer account to the Trust for any profit or gain realized, provided that if the Trustee or director or officer is acting honestly and in good faith, he or she will not be accountable to the Trust or to the Unitholders for any profit or gain realized from such material contract or transaction, and such material contract or transaction will not be void or voidable and may not be set aside, if: (i) the material contract or transaction was reasonable and fair to the Trust at the time it was approved; (ii) the material contract or transaction is confirmed or approved at a meeting of the Trust duly called for that purpose; and (iii) the nature and extent of the Trustee's or director's or officer's interest in such contract or transaction is disclosed in reasonable detail in the notice calling the meeting of the Trustee.

The issued shares of the Investment GP are owned by the Trustee, on its own account and not as trustee for the Unitholders. As such, all dividends and other distributions by the Investment GP to the Trustee will be received by the Trustee for its own account and the Unitholders are not entitled to receive any income or proceeds arising from or relating to the Trustee's investment in the issued shares of the Investment GP.

Rights of Unitholders

A Unitholder has substantially all of the same protections, rights and remedies as a shareholder would have under the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"), except as described herein. Many of the provisions of the CBCA respecting the governance and management of a corporation have been incorporated in the Trust Declaration. For example, Unitholders are entitled to exercise voting rights in respect of their Units in a manner comparable to shareholders of a CBCA corporation, and provisions relating to the calling and holding of meetings of Unitholders included in the Trust Declaration are comparable to those of the CBCA. Unlike shareholders of a CBCA corporation, Unitholders do not have a comparable right of a shareholder to make a proposal at a general meeting of the Trust. The matters in respect of which Unitholder approval is required under the Trust Declaration are generally less extensive than the rights conferred on the shareholders of a CBCA corporation. The appointment of auditors is reserved to the Trustee rather than the Unitholders. Unitholders do not have recourse to a dissent right under which shareholders of a CBCA corporation are entitled to receive the fair value of their shares where certain fundamental changes affecting the corporation are undertaken (such as an amalgamation, the sale of all or substantially all of its property, or a going private transaction). As an alternative, Unitholders seeking to terminate their investment in the Trust are entitled to receive, subject to certain conditions and limitations, their pro rata share of the Trust's net assets through the exercise of the redemption rights described above under "Redemption". Unitholders similarly do not have recourse to the statutory oppression remedy that is available to shareholders of a CBCA corporation where the corporation undertakes actions that are oppressive, unfairly prejudicial or disregard the interests of security holders and certain other parties.

Shareholders of a CBCA corporation may apply to a court to order the liquidation and dissolution of the corporation in certain circumstances, whereas Unitholders may rely only on the general provisions of the Trust Declaration which permit the winding-up of the Trust with the approval of a Special Resolution of the Unitholders. Shareholders of a CBCA corporation may also apply to a court for the appointment of an inspector to investigate the manner in which the business of the corporation and its affiliates is being carried on where there is reason to believe that fraudulent, dishonest or oppressive conduct has occurred. The CBCA also permits shareholders to bring or intervene in derivative actions in the name of the corporation or any of its subsidiaries, with the leave of a court. The Trust Declaration does not include comparable rights.

The foregoing is a summary only of certain of the material provisions of the Trust Declaration. For a complete understanding of all of the provisions of the Trust Declaration, reference should be made to the Trust Declaration itself, a copy of which is available from the Trustee.

Investment LP Agreement

The rights and obligations of the Investment GP and the limited partners of the Investment LP are governed by the Investment LP Agreement dated February 13, 2012, as amended and restated August 10, 2017, and made among the Investment LP, the Trust and all persons who subscribe for Investment LP Units establishing the Limited Partnership. The following is a summary of certain material provisions of the Investment LP Agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and reference should be to the Investment LP Agreement itself, a copy of which is available from the Investment GP c/o the Trustee. Capitalized terms in this summary which are not defined in this section of the Offering Memorandum are defined in the Investment LP Agreement.

Investment LP Units

Interests in the Investment LP consist of an unlimited number of Investment LP Units. The price of LP Units will fluctuate based on changes in the Limited Partners Ending Net Equity from time to time.

Distributions

Subject to the payment of a Special Distribution – Investment LP, in each Period, the Investment LP will pay and distribute Available Cash Flow – Investment LP as follows:

- (a) First, to the Limited Partners and the Investment GP, until they have received an amount (the “Payment Amount”) which, when aggregated with all previous distributions in that Period pursuant to this subsection (a), is equal to (but not in excess of) the Hurdle Return (After Tax) for such Period and shall be paid as follows:
 - (i) to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period, an amount equal to the product of the Payment Amount multiplied by the Limited Partners’ Percentage Interest; and
 - (ii) to the Investment GP, an amount equal to the product of the Payment Amount multiplied by the General Partner Percentage Interest;
- (b) Second, to the extent that Available Cash Flow – Investment LP exceeds the Total Return – Investment LP in such Period (the “Excess”), the Excess shall be paid, in an amount not to exceed any negative Value Appreciation in such Period, as follows:
 - (i) to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period, an amount equal to the product of the Excess multiplied by the Limited Partners’ Percentage Interest; and
 - (ii) to the Investment GP, an amount equal to the product of the Excess multiplied by the General Partner Percentage Interest; and
- (c) Third, to the extent that Available Cash Flow – Investment LP exceeds the amounts distributed pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section, 20% of such excess shall be paid to the Investment GP and 80% of such excess shall be paid as follows:
 - (i) to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the period, an amount equal to the product of such excess multiplied by the Limited Partners’ Percentage Interest; and
 - (ii) to the Investment GP, an amount equal to the product of such excess multiplied by the General Partner Percentage Interest.

Pursuant to the Investment LP Agreement, the Limited Partners are entitled to receive the Limited Partners’ Percentage Interest in all of the income and capital of the Investment LP and the Investment GP is entitled to receive the General Partner Percentage Interest in all of the income and capital of the Investment LP. Initially, the Limited Partners' Percentage Interest is equal to 100% and the General Partner Percentage Interest is nil. In any Period in which the Total Return – Investment LP exceeds the Hurdle Return, to the extent that Available Cash Flow – Investment LP is not sufficient to pay such excess (being the Excess Return), the Investment GP will participate in that portion of the Excess Return through an accretion to the General Partner Percentage Interest.

Distributions of Other Receipts

Subject to the payment of a Special Distribution – Investment LP, in each Period, other than the last Period prior to a dissolution of the Investment LP, Other Receipts – Investment LP shall be distributed, as cash flow permits and subject to the discretion of the Investment GP to retain all or any portion of any such balance, as follows:

- (a) the Limited Partners' Percentage Interest of the Other Receipts – Investment LP will be distributed to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period; and
- (d) the General Partner Percentage Interest of the Other Receipts – Investment LP will be distributed to the General Partner.

Special Distribution on Account of the General Partner Percentage Interest

If, in the opinion of the Investment GP, acting reasonably, it would not substantially adversely affect the interests of the Limited Partners, including the ability of the Investment LP to distribute Available Cash Flow – Investment LP, in any Period any cash of the Investment LP, including without limitation Available Cash Flow – Investment LP, Other Receipts – Investment LP, Subscription Proceeds – Investment LP, and cash received from other sources, may be distributed to the Investment GP in priority to the distributions to the Limited Partners.

Additional Capital Contributions

No limited partner of the Investment LP is required to make additional capital contributions to the Investment LP over and above the purchase price paid for such limited partner's Investment LP Units.

Distributions upon Dissolution

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or wind-up of the Investment LP, its assets will be liquidated and the proceeds of dissolution will be distributed in the following order:

- (a) in the event that dissolution occurs upon the final repayment of the Holding Co Loan or the redemption of the last of the Investment Co Shares, to pay any costs incurred by the Investment LP in such repayment or redemption;
- (e) to pay all expenses incurred in the winding-up of the Investment LP;
- (f) to pay all of the liabilities of the Investment LP, including any loans or advances made by Limited Partners, any amounts owing to the Investment GP in respect of costs and expenses owing to it pursuant to the Investment LP Agreement, all in the manner required by law;
- (g) to establish such reserves as the Investment GP considers necessary;
- (h) to return to each Limited Partner the amount in such Limited Partner's capital account;
- (i) to return to the General Partner the balance in its capital account; and
- (j) to distribute any balance then remaining as follows:
 - (i) the Limited Partners' Percentage Interest of the balance will be distributed to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares; and

- (ii) the General Partner Percentage Interest of the balance will be distributed to the General Partner.

Alternatively, the Limited Partners may approve by Special Resolution distributions of all assets of the Investment LP in kind or in specie in which event each Limited Partner shall, subject to the provisions contained herein, be entitled to receive an undivided interest in each and every asset of the Investment LP in accordance with such Limited Partner's Proportionate Share as of the date of dissolution or sale.

Allocation of Income and Losses for Tax and Accounting Purposes

Subject to any Special Distribution – Investment LP or any allocation adjustments, the net income and taxable income of the Investment LP for each Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Limited Partners and Investment GP as follows:

- (a) first, to each of the Limited Partners and Investment GP pro rata an amount, if any, in proportion to and to the extent of any losses previously allocated to each such partner in previous Fiscal Years less the cumulative amount allocated to each such Partner in previous Fiscal Years pursuant to such provision;
- (b) second, to the Limited Partners and Investment GP, to the extent of the cumulative amounts distributed to the Limited Partners and Investment GP respectively pursuant to subparagraph (a) above up to and including the date of such net income allocation in excess of the cumulative amount allocated to the Limited Partners and Investment GP in previous Fiscal Years, and the Limited Partners' share so determined shall be allocated among the Limited Partners pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period;
- (c) third, to the Limited Partners and Investment GP, to the extent of the cumulative amounts distributed to the Limited Partners and Investment GP respectively pursuant to subparagraph (b) above up to and including the date of such net income allocation in excess of the cumulative amount allocated to the Limited Partners and Investment GP in previous Fiscal Years, and the Limited Partners' share so determined shall be allocated among the Limited Partners pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period;
- (d) fourth, to the Limited Partners and Investment GP, to the extent of the cumulative amounts distributed to the Limited Partners and Investment GP respectively pursuant to subparagraph (c) above up to and including the date of this net income allocation in excess of the cumulative amount allocated to the Limited Partners and Investment GP in previous Fiscal Years, and the Limited Partners' share so determined shall be allocated among the Limited Partners pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period;
- (e) fifth, to the Limited Partners and Investment GP, to the extent of the cumulative amounts distributed to the Limited Partners and Investment GP respectively pursuant to the provision of the Investment LP Agreement relating to the distribution of Other Receipts – Investment LP up to and including the date of such net income allocation in excess of the cumulative amount allocated to the Limited Partners and Investment GP in previous Fiscal Years, and the Limited Partners' share so determined shall be allocated among the Limited Partners pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period; and
- (f) sixth, the balance if any to the Limited Partners and to the Investment GP in accordance with the Limited Partners' Percentage Interest and the General Partner GP Percentage Interest, respectively, and the Limited Partners' share so determined shall be allocated among the Limited Partners pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period.

Where taxable income of the Investment LP in a Fiscal Year includes a taxable dividend (as the term is defined in subsection 89(1) of the Tax Act), the source of taxable income that is a taxable dividend shall be allocated among the Limited Partners and Investment GP on the following basis:

- (a) first, to the Investment GP, to the extent of income allocated to it in such Fiscal Year pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (f) above or any special allocation to the Investment GP or any allocation adjustments; and

- (b) second, as to the remainder, to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period.

Taxable income from other sources shall then be allocated among the Limited Partners and Investment GP on such basis so that the total allocation to each partner shall be in accordance with the amounts provided for in paragraphs (a) through (f) above. For greater certainty, where net income or taxable income of the Investment LP for a Fiscal Year is insufficient to fulfill the total allocations provided for in paragraphs (a) through (f) above to their full extent, the portion of net income or taxable income, as the case may be, to be allocated under such subsections shall be allocated between the Limited Partners (as a group) and the Investment GP rateably based on the amount that is the cumulative amounts distributed to each party pursuant to the provisions of the Investment LP Agreement relating to the allocation of net loss and taxable loss, subsections (a) and (c) of the provision of the Investment LP Agreement relating to the distribution of Available Cash Flow – Investment LP and the provision of the Investment LP Agreement relating to the distribution of Other Receipts – Investment LP, as the case may be, up to and including the date of this net income allocation, less the cumulative amount allocated to each party pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), (d) or (e) above, as the case may be, in previous Fiscal Years.

The net loss and taxable loss of the Investment LP for each Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Limited Partners and Investment GP as follows:

- (a) first, to the Limited Partners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Proportionate Shares throughout the Period to the extent of the positive balance remaining in their capital accounts; and
- (b) second, as to the remainder, if any, to the Investment GP.

Special Allocation to the Investment GP and Allocation Adjustments

If a Special Distribution – Investment LP has been made to the Investment GP pursuant in a particular Fiscal Year or previous Fiscal Years, then to the extent that net income and taxable income of the Investment LP allocable to Limited Partners is greater than the amount that would have been allocated to Limited Partners had the Special Distribution – Investment LP not been made (such difference being the “Excess Income Amount”), then the Excess Income Amount shall be allocated so as to increase the Investment GP (and decrease the Limited Partners’) allocated share of net income and taxable income of the Investment LP, but only to the extent that the cumulative Excess Income Amount allocated in that Fiscal Year and previous Fiscal Years is equal to and not greater than the cumulative Special Distributions – Investment LP in that Fiscal Year and previous Fiscal Years.

The Investment GP, in its reasonable discretion and from time to time, may make further modifications, by resolution or otherwise, to the manner or amount in which net income, taxable income, net loss and taxable losses of the Investment LP are allocated to or among the Limited Partner and the Investment GP in order that, in the reasonable judgment of the Investment GP, such allocations will, on an annual or cumulative basis, reasonably reflect the cumulative amount and sources of amounts distributed to each Limited Partner and the Investment GP, provided, however, that no such adjustment or modification shall materially and adversely affect the amounts distributable to any partner.

Management and Control of the Limited Partnership

Under the terms of the Investment LP Agreement, the Investment GP is given full power and authority to manage, control, administer and operate the business of the Investment LP, except for certain matters being subject to votes of the Investment LP limited partners. No Investment LP limited partner is permitted to take part in the management of the business of the Investment LP. The Investment GP has unlimited liability for the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Investment LP to the extent required by the Partnership Act (British Columbia) and other applicable legislation. A limited partner of the Investment LP will not be liable for any debts, liabilities or obligations of the Investment LP in excess of such limited partner’s paid capital contributions and any unpaid capital contributions agreed to be paid in respect of such limited partner’s Investment LP Units, provided such limited partner does not take part in the control or management of the business of the Investment LP.

Removal of the General Partner

The limited partners of the Investment LP may, by Special Resolution and upon 60 days’ written notice to the Investment GP, remove the Investment GP without cause, and may remove the Investment GP for cause, if such cause is not remedied after reasonable notice from the limited partners of the Investment LP. In either such case, the limited partners will appoint, concurrently with the removal, a replacement general partner to assume all of the responsibilities and obligations of the removed Investment GP, and the removed Investment GP will be released of its liabilities under the Investment LP Agreement and indemnified for any damages and expenses with respect to events which occur in relation to the Investment LP after the appointment of the new general partner.

In the event of the removal of the Investment GP, the Investment LP may terminate any agreements made between the Investment LP and the Investment GP or a Related Party, upon the payment by the Investment LP to the Investment GP or such Related Party of the amount stated in such agreement to be payable upon termination or, in the absence thereof, a reasonable termination compensation. Upon termination of any such agreements, the Investment LP will be responsible for the payment to the Investment GP of any and all fees payable under such agreements, and all expenses incurred and paid by the Investment GP up to the date immediately prior to the date of termination. As well, the Investment LP will purchase from the Investment GP its interest in the Investment LP for a price equal to the fair market value thereof, less the damages caused to the Investment LP by the removed Investment GP in the termination of its relationship with the Investment LP, if any.

The removal and replacement of the General Partner will not dissolve the Limited Partnership, and the business of the Limited Partnership will be continued by the new General Partner.

Voting

Each Investment LP Unit has attached to it the right to exercise one vote at meetings of the Investment LP. Certain powers, relating generally to the existence and fundamental powers of the Investment LP, are specified in the Investment LP Agreement to be exercisable only by way of a Special Resolution passed by the limited partners of the Investment LP.

Financial Information

The General Partner has agreed under the Investment LP Agreement to distribute a copy of audited annual financial statements to each limited partner of the Investment LP within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Investment LP, and to provide each limited partner with annual income tax information for each fiscal year by March 31 of the following year to facilitate the declaration by each limited partner of his, her or its share of the Investment LP's income. All financial statements will be prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) applied on a consistent basis, and will contain a breakdown of any expenses for which Related Parties have been reimbursed.

Residency

Under the terms of the Investment LP Agreement, Investment LP Units may only be held by persons or entities that are residents of Canada for Canadian income tax purposes. If, at any time, a limited partner of the Investment LP becomes a non-resident for Canadian income tax purposes, such non-resident limited partner may be required to sell his, her or its Investment LP Units to a resident of Canada.

No Transferability

Limited Partners may not transfer, assign, pledge, encumber or dispose of any Investment LP Units without the written consent of the Investment GP.

Certificates

Certificates for Units will be issued to Limited Partners.

The foregoing is a summary only of certain of the material provisions of the Investment LP Agreement. For a complete understanding of all of the provisions of the Investment LP Agreement, reference should be made to the Investment LP Agreement itself, a copy of which is available from the Investment GP c/o of the Trustee.

5.2 Subscription Procedure

The Units are conditionally offered if, as and when Subscriptions are accepted by the Trust and subject to prior sale. Subscriptions for Units will be received by the Trust subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part and the right is reserved to close the subscription books at any time without notice.

This offering is being made in accordance with certain statutory prospectus exemptions and, where applicable, registration exemptions, contained in securities legislation in the jurisdictions in which the Units are being offered. Such exemptions relieve the Trust from provisions under such statutes requiring the Trust to file a prospectus and utilize a registered securities dealer to sell the Units. As such, investors will not receive the benefits associated with the involvement of such registrants or the benefits associated with purchasing the Units pursuant to a filed prospectus, including the review of the material by the securities commissions or similar regulatory authority in such jurisdictions.

The Units are being offered on a continuous basis pursuant to exemptions from the prospectus and, where applicable, registration requirements of applicable securities legislation. In order to subscribe for Units, investors must be within one of the following categories:

- (a) an “accredited investor” as such term is defined in National Instrument 45-106 (“NI 45-106”), provided the subscriber delivers a signed risk acknowledgement form in the form required by NI 45-106, if applicable; or

 - (ii) purchasing a number of Units which have an aggregate Subscription Price of less than $10,000; or
- (d) resident in Alberta, Ontario or Saskatchewan, who acknowledges having received and read a copy of this Offering Memorandum and delivers a signed risk acknowledgement form, including Schedule 1 Classification of Investors under the Offering Memorandum Exemption, in the form required by NI 45-106 and the acquisition cost of all securities acquired by the subscriber who is an individual in the preceding 12 months does not exceed the following amounts:
 - (i) in the case of a subscriber that is not an “Eligible Investor”, $10,000;
 - (ii) in the case of a subscriber that is an “Eligible Investor”, $30,000;
 - (iii) in the case of a subscriber that is an “Eligible Investor” and that received advice from a portfolio manager, investment dealer or exempt market dealer that the investment is suitable, $100,000,provided, however, that the investment limits described in (e)(i) and (ii) above do not apply if the subscriber is an “accredited investor” or a person described in Section 2.5(1) of NI 45-106; or
- (e) acquiring Units that have a Subscription Price of not less than $150,000, provided the conditions of Section 2.10 of NI 45-106 are satisfied.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Units may be issued pursuant to other available exemptions from the prospectus requirements of applicable securities legislation provided the conditions of such exemptions are satisfied.

Investors may subscribe for Units by returning to the Trustee at 500 – 2609 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6H 3H3 the following:

- (a) a completed Subscription Agreement; and

Each Investor will also be required to sign two copies of a Risk Acknowledgment (Form 45-106F4 with Schedule 1 Classification of Investors Under the Offering Memorandum Exemption for Alberta, Saskatchewan and Ontario subscribers), and in accordance with the requirements of NI 45-106 and, if applicable, two further copies of a Risk Acknowledgment Form (Appendix A to BC Instrument 32-513). Each Investor that is an individual that is relying on the “accredited investor” exemption in Section 2.3 of NI 45-106 will also be required to sign two copies of a Risk Acknowledgment Form (Form 45-106F9), in accordance with the requirements of NI 45-106. In accordance with the requirements of NI 45-106, the Trustee will hold the subscription monies advanced by each Investor in trust for the Investor until midnight on the second business day after the Subscription Agreement is signed by the Investor.

Subscriptions received will be subject to rejection or allotment by the Trust in whole or in part in the Trustee’s sole discretion. The Trust is not obliged to accept any subscription. If any subscription is not accepted, the Trust will promptly return to the subscriber the Subscription Agreement and the money comprising such subscription. Confirmation of acceptance of a subscription will be forwarded to the subscriber by the Trust. The Trust reserves the right to close the subscription books at any time without notice.

The Trust intends to accept subscriptions for Units on a continuous basis, on such days as the Trustee may determine from time to time. For convenience, subscription funds which are received by the Trust prior to any acceptance date will be held in a separate bank account of the Trust until subscriptions are accepted by the Trust. The deposit of subscription funds by the Trust into such bank account shall not constitute acceptance of the subscription for Units in respect of which such funds have been delivered.

The Units have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and subject to certain exceptions, may not be offered or sold in the United States.

All subscription documents should be reviewed by prospective subscribers and their professional advisers prior to subscribing for Units.

ITEM 6 SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

6.1 You should consult your own professional advisors to obtain advice on the income tax consequences that apply to you.

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD OBTAIN INDEPENDENT ADVICE FROM THEIR OWN TAX AND LEGAL ADVISORS REGARDING THE INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES APPLICABLE TO THEIR OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

The following is a summary, of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable under the Tax Act to a Unitholder who acquires Units pursuant to this Offering and who, for purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, is resident in Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act, deals at arm’s length and is not affiliated with the Issuer and holds the Units as capital property. Generally, the Units will be considered to be capital property to a Unitholder provided such Units are not held in the course of carrying on a business and have not been acquired in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade. Certain Unitholders who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Units as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act. Such Unitholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding their particular circumstances as such election would affect the Canadian federal income tax treatment of dispositions by the Unitholder of all of their “Canadian securities” (as defined in the Tax Act).

This summary is not applicable to a Unitholder that is a “financial institution” for purposes of the “mark-to-market” rules or a “specified financial institution”, or a Unitholder an interest in which is a “tax shelter investment” (all as defined in the Tax Act). This summary does not address the tax considerations of Unitholders borrowing money to acquire Units. All such Unitholders should consult their own tax advisors to determine the tax consequences to them of the acquisition, holding and disposition of the Units acquired pursuant to this Offering. This summary describes certain principal Canadian federal income tax considerations based on the application of specific provisions of the Tax Act to the transactions described in the Offering Memorandum, and does not address any tax consequences which could arise as a result of any potential application of the general anti-avoidance rule in subsection 245(2) of the Tax Act to any particular transaction or series of transactions.

This summary is based on the facts set out in this Offering Memorandum. This summary is also based upon the provisions of the Tax Act and the regulations (the “Regulations”) thereunder in force as of the date hereof and on the publicly available administrative policies and assessing practices of the Canada Revenue Agency (the “CRA”) published prior to the date hereof. This summary takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the Regulations thereunder which have been publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (collectively, the “Proposed Amendments”). There can be no assurance that these proposals will be enacted in their current form or at all, or that the CRA will not change its administrative policies and assessing practices.

This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial decision or action. There can be no assurances that such changes, if made, might not be retroactive. Modification or amendment of the Tax Act or Proposed Amendments could significantly alter the tax status of the Trust and the tax consequences of investing in Units. This summary also does not take into account provincial, territorial, U.S., State, or other foreign tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed in this summary.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to an investment in Units. The income and other tax consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of Units will vary depending on the particular circumstances applicable to each Unitholder. Accordingly, this summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice to any prospective purchaser of Units. The Trust has not obtained, nor sought, an advance tax ruling from the CRA in respect of this Offering. Prospective purchasers should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in Units based on their particular circumstances.

Tax Status of the Trust

Qualification as a “Mutual Fund Trust”

This summary assumes that the Trust has qualified at all times since inception, currently qualifies and will continue to qualify as a “mutual fund trust” as defined in the Tax Act. If the Trust does not qualify or ceases to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the Canadian federal income tax considerations described below would be materially different from those described in this summary, and in particular, adverse consequences may arise including that (i) the Trust may become liable to pay certain additional taxes (with the result that the amount of cash available for distribution by the Trust would be reduced and Unitholders may otherwise be adversely affected), and, (ii) unless at such time the Units are listed on a designated stock exchange, the Units will not be qualified investments for Deferred Plans (with the result that a Deferred Plan, its annuitant or holder thereof may become liable to pay additional tax or penalties or may be otherwise adversely affected).

To qualify as a mutual fund trust at any particular time: (i) the Trust must be a unit trust (as defined in the Tax Act) resident in Canada; (ii) the Trust must not reasonably be considered to be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents of Canada; (iii) the Units must have conditions requiring the Trust to accept, at the demand of a Unitholder and at prices determined and payable in accordance with the conditions, the surrender of the Units that are fully paid; (iv) the only undertaking of the Trust must be the investing of its funds in property (other than real property or an interest in real property or an immovable or a real right in an immovable), or the acquiring, holding, maintaining, improving, leasing or managing of real property (or an interest in real property) or an immovable (or real right in immovables) that is capital property of the Trust, or any combination of such activities; and (v) the Trust must comply with certain prescribed requirements including that the Units be qualified for distribution to the public and that at all relevant times there must be no fewer than 150 beneficiaries of the Trust, each of whom holds at least one “block of units” (as defined in the Regulations) having an aggregate fair market value of not less than CDN$500 each.

The SIFT Measures

The Tax Act contains rules regarding the taxation of certain types of publicly listed or traded trusts and partnerships and their investors (the “SIFT Measures”). The SIFT Measures effectively tax certain income of a publicly-traded trust or partnership that is distributed to its investors on the same basis as would have applied had the income been earned through a taxable corporation and distributed by way of dividend to its shareholders. The SIFT Measures apply to any “specified investment flow-through” (a “SIFT”) and its investors.

A SIFT is generally a trust or partnership investments in which are listed or traded on a stock exchange or other public market, and which holds “non-portfolio properties” (as defined in the Tax Act). The effect of the SIFT Measures is that SIFT trusts and SIFT partnerships are generally subject to a special tax (“SIFT tax”) on their “non-portfolio earnings”, where such earnings are distributed or allocated to investors of the trust or partnership. For those purposes, “non-portfolio earnings” generally includes income (other than taxable dividends) from, or net taxable capital gains realized on, “non-portfolio properties” in the taxation year. Non-portfolio properties include certain Canadian real, immovable or resource properties, certain property used in the course of carrying on a business in Canada, and securities in certain intermediary entities which own non-portfolio properties.

The Trust does not have immediate plans to list the Units on any stock exchange for public trading. Should the Units be in the future listed or traded on a stock exchange or other public market, the Trust expects to hold no property and carry out no activities that would cause it to become liable to SIFT tax. Specifically, the Trust, the Investment LP, Investment Co, Holding Co, Operating LP and its direct or indirect subsidiary partnerships (the “Rise US Limited Partnerships”) do not expect to hold any “non-portfolio property” for the purposes of the Tax Act.

Consequently the Trust expects, and this summary assumes, that the Trust will not be liable to SIFT tax under the SIFT Measures. Should the Units or the Investment LP Units be listed or traded on a stock exchange or public market, and should the Trust, Investment LP or Investment Co hold any non-portfolio property, the Canadian federal income tax considerations could be materially different from those described in this summary. In particular the non-deductible distributions amount of the Trust or the taxable non-portfolio earnings of the Investment LP, if any, could be taxable to the Trust or Investment LP respectively (with the result that the amount of cash available for distribution by the Trust may be reduced), and such amount could also, depending on the circumstances, be included in the income of Unitholders for purposes of the Tax Act as eligible dividends. There can be no assurances that the treatment of SIFTs under the Tax Act will not be changed, or that administrative policies or assessing practices of the CRA will not develop, in a manner which adversely affects the Issuer or Unitholders.

Taxation of the Trust

The taxation year of the Trust is the calendar year. In each taxation year, the Trust will be subject to tax under Part I of the Tax Act on its income for purposes of the Tax Act for the year, including net realized taxable capital gains, less the portion thereof that it deducts in respect of the amounts paid or payable in the year to Unitholders. An amount will be considered to be payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year if it is paid to the Unitholder in the year by the Trust or if the Unitholder is entitled in that year to enforce payment of the amount.

The Trust will generally be required to include in computing income for a particular taxation year its allocated share of the income or loss of the Investment LP for the fiscal period of the Investment LP ending on or before the year-end of the Trust. Any dividend received by the Investment LP will retain its character as a dividend when allocated to the Trust. The Trust’s ability to deduct any losses allocated to it by the Investment LP will be limited by certain rules under the Tax Act. The Trust may also realize a capital gain or loss on the disposition or deemed disposition of Investment LP Units (including from any distribution in specie of Investment LP Units), from the disposition of foreign currency or upon the allocation of a capital gain or loss from the Investment LP, as described below under “Taxation of the Investment LP”. Also, as described under “Taxation of the Investment LP” below, cash flow distributed by the Investment LP to the Trust will be generally received free from tax, except to the extent that such distributions reduce the adjusted cost base of Investment LP Units held by the Trust to a negative amount at the end of a fiscal year of the Investment LP.

In computing its income for purposes of the Tax Act, the Trust may generally deduct reasonable administrative costs, interest and other expenses of a current nature incurred by it for the purpose of earning income. The Trust will be entitled to deduct reasonable expenses incurred by it in the course of issuing Units on a five-year straight line basis (subject to pro-rata for short taxation years), to the extent such costs are not reimbursed under the Cost Sharing and Recovery Agreement.

The Trust will be entitled for each taxation year to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized taxable capital gains by an amount determined under the Tax Act based on the redemption of Units during the year (the “capital gains refund”). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset the Trust’s tax liability for that taxation year arising in connection with the distribution of its property on the redemption of Units. The Trust Declaration provides that all or a portion of any income or taxable capital gain realized by the Trust as a result of that redemption may, at the discretion of the Trustee, be treated as income or taxable capital gain paid to, and designated as income or taxable capital gain of, the redeeming Unitholders, and thus generally deductible by the Trust in computing its income.

Under the Trust Declaration, an amount equal to the net income (including taxable capital gains) of the Trust (determined without reference to paragraph 82(1)(b) and subsection 104(6) of the Tax Act), plus the non-taxable portion of any net capital gain realized by the Trust, but excluding:

- A. income and capital gains arising on or in connection with an in specie distribution on the redemption of Units which are paid or payable and designated by the Trust to redeeming Unitholders,
- B. capital gains, which may be offset by capital losses, if any, carried forward from prior years or, if not so offset, tax on which is recoverable by the Trust, and
- C. income, which may be offset by non-capital losses, if any, carried forward from prior years, may be payable in the year to Unitholders, subject to the qualifications described below.

The Trust Declaration provides that, to the extent cash of the Trust is unavailable for distributions, and the income of the Trust in a taxation year exceeds the cumulative cash distributions for that year, such excess income may be distributed to Unitholders in the form of additional Units or otherwise. Income of the Trust payable to Unitholders, whether in cash, additional Units or otherwise, will generally be deductible by the Trust in computing its taxable income.

Losses incurred by the Trust in a particular taxation year cannot be allocated to Unitholders, but may be deducted by the Trust, in the case of non-capital losses in the particular year and in the ensuing twenty taxation years, and in the case of capital losses in the particular year and in any future taxation year to the extent of capital gains in computing taxable income of the Trust in accordance with, and subject to, applicable provisions of the Tax Act.

Taxation of the Investment LP

The Investment LP is not subject to tax under the Tax Act. Each partner of the Investment LP (including the Trust), is required to include in computing the partner’s income for a particular taxation year the partner’s share of the income or loss of partnership for the partnership’s fiscal year ending in or on the partner’s taxation year-end, whether or not any of that income or loss is distributed to the partner in the taxation year. For this purpose, the income or loss of the Investment LP is computed for each fiscal year as if the Investment LP was a separate person resident in Canada, and allocated to partners on the basis of their respective shares of that income or loss as provided for in the limited partnership agreement of the Investment LP, subject to certain provisions of the Tax Act.

Generally, cash distributions to a limited partner, including the Trust, in excess of the limited partner’s share of the income and capital gains for a fiscal year will be treated for purposes of the Tax Act as a return of capital, which is not required to be included in the limited partner’s income but will reduce the limited partner’s adjusted cost base of its partnership units. If, as a result, the limited partner’s adjusted cost base of its partnership units at the end of a fiscal year of any of the Investment LP would otherwise be a negative amount, the limited partner will be deemed to realize a capital gain equal to such amount, and the adjusted cost base of its partnership units will be nil immediately thereafter.

If the Investment LP incurs losses for purposes of the Tax Act, the Trust as limited partner will be entitled to deduct in the computation of its income for purposes of the Tax Act its share of any such losses for any fiscal year to the extent of its “at-risk amount” in respect of the Investment LP. In general, the “at-risk amount” of a limited partner in respect of a limited partnership for any taxation year will be the adjusted cost base of the limited partner’s partnership interest at the end of the year (subject to certain provisions of the Tax Act), plus any undistributed income allocated to the limited partner for the year, less any amount owing by the limited partner (or a person with whom the limited partner does not deal at arm's length) to the limited partnership (or a person with whom the limited partnership does not deal at arm's length), and less the amount of any benefit that the limited partner (or a person with whom the limited partner does not deal at arm's length) is entitled to receive or obtain for the purpose of reducing, in whole or in part, any loss of the limited partner from the investment.

The income for purposes of the Tax Act of the Investment LP includes dividends, if any, received from Investment Co as well as interest income on the Holding Co Debt. Such interest income will be considered as income from a source in the U.S. (see “Foreign Tax Credits and Deductions” below). The Investment LP is required to include in computing its income for a taxation year all interest that accrues to the Investment LP before the end of that year or that becomes receivable or is received by the Investment LP before the end of that year, except to the extent that such interest was included in computing the Investment LP’s income for a preceding taxation year. The Investment LP generally is not required to include in computing its income any amount received as a repayment of principal in respect of the Holding Co Debt. In computing its income or loss, the Investment LP may generally deduct administrative costs and other expenses of a current nature incurred by it for the purpose of earning income from its business or property, provided such expenses are reasonable and otherwise deductible, subject to applicable provisions of the Tax Act. The Investment LP may also deduct any expenses incurred by it in the course of the issuance of Investment LP Units on a five-year straight line basis (subject to pro-rata for short taxation years).

Taxation of Investment Co

Holding Co will be a “controlled foreign affiliate” of Investment Co for purposes of the Tax Act. Dividends paid by Holding Co to Investment Co will be included in computing the income of Investment Co. However, to the extent that such dividends are considered to have been paid out of the “exempt surplus” of Holding Co with respect to Investment Co such amount will be deductible in computing the taxable income of Investment Co.

Investment Co is required to include “foreign accrual property income” (“FAPI”) in respect of Holding Co in computing the income of Investment Co for the taxation year of Investment Co in which the taxation year of Holding Co ends, whether or not Investment Co actually receives a distribution of the FAPI in that taxation year of Investment Co. If an amount of FAPI is included in computing the income of Investment Co for Canadian income tax purposes, Investment Co should be entitled to deduct an amount in computing income in respect of any income or profits tax (“foreign accrual tax”) that is considered for Canadian tax purposes to have been paid by Holding Co that may reasonably be regarded as applicable to the amount of FAPI included in Investment Co’s income. Any amount of FAPI of Holding Co included in income will increase, and any amount of deduction in respect of foreign accrual tax will decrease, the adjusted cost base to Investment Co of its shares in Holding Co. At such time as Investment Co receives a dividend regarded, for purposes of the Tax Act, as being paid out of income that was previously taxed as FAPI, that dividend will effectively not be taxable to Investment Co and there will be a corresponding reduction in the adjusted cost base to Investment Co of its shares in Holding Co. FAPI of a foreign affiliate is generally computed in Canadian currency and in accordance with Part I of the Tax Act as though the affiliate were resident in Canada, subject to the detailed rules contained in the Tax Act.

Dividends considered as being paid out of the “pre-acquisition surplus” of Holding Co with respect to Investment Co will reduce the adjusted cost base to Investment Co of its shares in Holding Co. If the adjusted cost base to Investment Co of its shares in Holding Co becomes a negative amount, Investment Co will be deemed to realize a capital gain equal to such amount and its adjusted cost base in those shares will be deemed to be nil immediately thereafter.

Taxation of Unitholders

Distributions

A Unitholder will generally be required to include in computing income for a particular taxation year the portion of the net income for purposes of the Tax Act of the Trust for a taxation year, including net realized taxable capital gains, that is paid or payable by the Trust to the Unitholder in the particular taxation year, whether that amount is received in cash, additional Units, or otherwise. Any loss of the Trust for purposes of the Tax Act cannot be allocated to Unitholders.

The non-taxable portion of any net realized capital gains of the Trust that is paid or payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year will not be required to be included in computing the Unitholder's income for the year and should not reduce the adjusted cost base of Units held by the Unitholder. Any other amount paid or payable by the Trust in that year (other than as proceeds of disposition) that is in excess of the Trust's net income for that year will not generally be required to be included in the Unitholder's income for the year. However, where such an amount is paid or payable to a Unitholder, the Unitholder will be required to reduce the adjusted cost base of the Units by that amount. To the extent that the adjusted cost base of a Unit would otherwise be a negative amount, the negative amount will be deemed to be a capital gain and the adjusted cost base of the Unit to the Unitholder will immediately thereafter be nil.

The Trust Declaration provides that net income and net taxable capital gains of the Trust for purposes of the Tax Act will be allocated among the Unitholders in the same proportion as distributions received by them, unless the Trustee otherwise determines.

The Trust Declaration also provides that the Trust shall make the requisite designations permitted by the Tax Act such that the portion of net taxable capital gains of the Trust distributed to Unitholders as may reasonably be considered to be part of the amount that was included in computing income of Unitholders for purposes of the Tax Act will be deemed to be received by Unitholders in the year as a taxable capital gain. Any such designated amount will be subject to the general rules relating to the taxation of capital gains described below. A Unitholder which is a "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) may also be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % on certain investment income, including taxable capital gains.

The Trust Declaration also provides that the Trust shall make the requisite designations permitted by the Tax Act such that the portion of taxable dividend received by the Trust on a share of the capital stock of a taxable Canadian corporation as may reasonably be considered to be part of the amount that was included in computing income of Unitholders for purposes of the Tax Act will be deemed to be received by Unitholders in the year as a taxable dividend. To the extent that amounts distributed by the Trust to Unitholders are designated as taxable dividends from a taxable Canadian corporation, the normal gross-up and dividend tax credit rules will apply in respect of Unitholders who are individuals, the refundable tax under Part IV of the Tax Act will be payable by Unitholders that are private corporations (or certain other corporations controlled directly or indirectly by or for the benefit of an individual or related group of individuals) and the deduction in computing taxable income generally will be available to Unitholders that are corporations. An additional refundable 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % tax will be payable by Unitholders that are Canadian-controlled private corporations (as defined in the Tax Act) in certain circumstances. Enhanced gross-up and dividend tax credit rules under the Tax Act will apply to Unitholders who are individuals to the extent that taxable dividends are designated by Investment Co as "eligible dividends" in accordance with the Tax Act.

The Trust Declaration also provides that the Trust shall make the requisite designations permitted by the Tax Act such that the portion of the Trust's taxable income from a U.S. source distributed to Unitholders as may reasonably be considered to be part of the amount that was included in computing the income of Unitholders for purposes of the Tax Act will be deemed to be received by Unitholders in the year as income from a U.S. source. For purposes of computing their entitlement to foreign tax credits under the Tax Act, Unitholders shall also be deemed to have paid their proportionate share of any U.S. tax paid by the Trust on such U.S. source income (see "Foreign Tax Credits and Deductions" below).

Purchases of Units

Since the net income of the Trust will be distributed on a quarterly basis, a purchaser of a Unit may become taxable on a portion of the net income of the Trust that is accrued or realized by the Trust in a period before the time the Unit was purchased but which was not paid or made payable to Unitholders until the end of the period and after the time the Unit was purchased. A similar result may apply on an annual basis in respect of a portion of capital gains accrued or realized by the Trust in a year before the time the Unit was purchased but which is paid or made payable to Unitholders at year end and after the time the Unit was purchased.

Dispositions of Units

On the disposition or deemed disposition of a particular Unit, a Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the Unitholder's proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of such particular Unit and any reasonable costs of disposition. Proceeds of disposition will not include an amount payable by the Trust that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder's income, including any capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with a redemption which has been designated by the Trust to the redeeming Unitholder. The taxation of capital gains and capital losses is described below.

The adjusted cost base of a Unit to a Unitholder will include the amount paid by the Unitholder for the Unit, subject to certain adjustments. The cost to a Unitholder of additional Units received in lieu of a cash distribution of income (including net capital gains) will be the amount of income (including the applicable non-taxable portion of net capital gains) distributed by the issue of those respective Units. For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of Units, when a Unit is acquired, the cost of the newly acquired Unit must be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Units owned by the Unitholder as capital property immediately before that acquisition. The non-taxable portion of distributions (other than the non-taxable portion of any net capital gains) received on a Unit will generally reduce the adjusted cost base of the Unit.

Where Units are redeemed and the redemption price is paid by the delivery of Debt Securities or Investment LP Units to the redeeming Unitholder, the proceeds of disposition to the Unitholder of the Units will be equal to the fair market value of the Debt Securities or Investment LP Units so distributed less any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with the redemption of those Units, and which has been designated by the Trust to the Unitholder. Where any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with the distribution of Debt Securities or Investment LP Units on the redemption of Units has been designated by the Trust to a redeeming Unitholder, the Unitholder will be required to include in computing the Unitholder's income the income or taxable portion of the capital gain so designated.

Where Units are redeemed and the redemption price is paid by the delivery of Debt Securities as described above, the redeeming Unitholder will be required to include in income any interest on Debt Securities acquired (including interest that accrued prior to the date of the acquisition of such Debt Securities by the Unitholder that is designated as income to the Unitholder by the Trust) in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. The cost of any Debt Securities distributed by the Trust to a Unitholder upon redemption of Units will be equal to the fair market value of those Debt Securities at the time of the distribution less any accrued interest on such Debt Securities. Similarly, where Units are redeemed and the redemption price is paid by the delivery of Investment LP Units as described above, a redeeming Unitholder will be required to include in income the Unitholder's allocable share of income or loss of the Investment LP for purposes of the Tax Act for the year that includes the redemption (and the Unitholder's allocable share of income or loss of the Investment LP for all years during which the Unitholder holds the Investment LP Units), in accordance with the provisions of the Investment LP Agreement and the detailed rules of in the Tax Act in that regard. In the case of the Unitholder's allocable share of loss of the Investment LP for any given fiscal year, the Unitholder, will be entitled to deduct in the computation of its income for purposes of the Tax Act only to the extent of that Unitholder's "at-risk amount" as described above under "Taxation of the Investment LP". The cost of any Investment LP Units distributed by the Trust to a Unitholder upon a redemption of Units will be equal to the fair market value of those Investment LP Units at the time of the distribution.

Where Units are redeemed and the redemption price is paid by the issuance to the redeeming Unitholder of Trust Notes, the proceeds of disposition to the Unitholder of Units will be equal to the fair market value of the Trust Notes issued. The cost of the Trust Notes issued to a Unitholder by the Trust upon redemption of Units will be equal to the fair market value of the Units disposed in exchange. The Unitholder will thereafter be required to include in computing income for purposes of the Tax Act interest on the Trust Notes, in accordance with the terms of such Trust Notes and the provisions of the Tax Act.

Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses

One-half of any capital gain realized by a Unitholder on a disposition or deemed disposition of Units and the amount of any net taxable capital gains designated by the Trust in respect of a Unitholder must generally be included in the Unitholder's income as a taxable capital gain in the taxation year in which the disposition occurs or in respect of which a net taxable capital gains designation is made by the Trust. One-half of any capital loss realized by a Unitholder on a disposition or deemed disposition of Units generally may be deducted by the Unitholder against taxable capital gains of the Unitholder in the year of disposition, and to the extent such losses exceed such gains, in the three preceding taxation years or in any subsequent taxation year in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act.

A Unitholder that is a "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) may also be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % computed with reference to its "aggregate investment income" (as defined in the Tax Act) for the year, which includes amounts in respect of taxable capital gains.

Foreign Tax Credits and Deductions

To the extent that Unitholders are deemed to have paid their proportionate shares of any U.S. tax paid by the Trust on U.S. source income, such amount may be deductible as a foreign tax credit from the Unitholder's Canadian federal income tax otherwise payable for that year as relates to non-business income from U.S. sources. For purposes of calculating the foreign tax credit, non-business income from U.S. sources include taxable income of the Trust for purposes of the Tax Act that is from U.S. sources, is paid or payable by the Trust to the Unitholder, is included in computing income of the Unitholder for purposes of the Tax Act, and is designated by the Trust as U.S.-source income by filing requisite designations as permitted by the Tax Act. The amount deductible from Canadian federal income tax otherwise payable as a foreign tax credit is limited to the portion of the Unitholder's Canadian federal income tax otherwise payable under the Tax Act which is attributable to income from U.S. non-business income sources. If the U.S. tax paid attributable to a Unitholder exceeds the Unitholder's Canadian federal income tax otherwise payable on U.S. non-business income for the year, such part of the excess amount in respect of income from property (which should include for these purposes income of the Trust that is paid or payable by the Trust to the Unitholder and included in computing income of the Unitholder for purposes of the Tax Act) may be deducted as a foreign tax deduction in computing a Unitholder's income from such source for purposes of the Tax Act. A Unitholder's ability to apply U.S. taxes in the foregoing manner may be affected where the Unitholder has other U.S. source income or losses or has paid other U.S. taxes. Investors should consult their own tax advisors regarding their ability to claim foreign tax credits or foreign tax deductions.

The foregoing mechanism for recognition of U.S. taxes for purposes of the Tax Act through foreign tax credits or foreign tax deductions does not apply to Unitholders that are Deferred Plans. Annuitants, beneficiaries or holders of Unitholders that are Deferred Plans should consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

Alternative Minimum Tax

The Tax Act provides for a special "alternative minimum tax" applicable to certain taxpayers including individuals and certain trusts, depending on the amount of their "adjusted taxable income". In general terms, adjusted taxable income of a Unitholder who is an individual or a trust (and therefore the exposure of such Unitholder to liability for alternative minimum tax) must be increased by, among other things, any capital gains realized by such Unitholder on the disposition of Units and by any net income of the Trust that is paid or payable to such Unitholder and that has been designated as a taxable dividend or as a taxable capital gain.

Eligibility for Investment

Provided that at a particular time the Trust qualifies as a mutual fund trust within the meaning of the Tax Act, the Units will be "qualified investments" (as defined in the Tax Act and the Regulations) at that time for Deferred Plans.

Generally, if at any time the Trust does not qualify or ceases to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the Units will not be, or will cease to be, qualified investments for Deferred Plans at that time. Debt Securities, Investment LP Units or Trust Notes that may be issued by the Trust to holders of Units, on or in connection with redemption of Units, will generally not be qualified investments for Deferred Plans. Where a Unit, a Debt Security, Investment LP Unit or Trust Note held by a Deferred Plan is not a qualified investment or is a prohibited investment, adverse tax consequences will generally arise to the Deferred Plan and the annuitant, beneficiary or holder of the Plan, including, depending on the circumstances, that the Plan and the annuitant, beneficiary or holder may become subject to additional taxes and penalties, or that the annuitant, beneficiary or holder may be deemed to have received income from the Deferred Plan.

Notwithstanding that the Units may be a qualified investment for Deferred Plans as described above, a holder of a tax-free savings account or an annuitant under a registered retirement savings plan or registered retirement income fund, as the case may be (a “Specified Plan”), will be subject to a penalty tax if the Units held in the Specified Plan are a prohibited investment as defined in the Tax Act for the Specified Plan. The Units will generally be a “prohibited investment” for a Specified Plan if the holder or annuitant of the Specified Plan does not deal at arm’s length with the Trust for the purposes of the Tax Act, or has a “significant interest”, as defined in the Tax Act, in the Trust. Generally, a holder or annuitant will have a significant interest in the Trust if the Specified Plan, the annuitant or holder (as applicable), and other persons not at arm’s length with the annuitant or holder together, directly or indirectly, hold interests as beneficiaries under the Trust that have a fair market value of 10% or more of the fair market value of the interests of all beneficiaries under the Trust.

In light of the foregoing, Plans that propose to invest in Units should consult their own tax advisors before deciding to purchase Units and again before deciding to exercise the redemption rights attached to such Units.

ITEM 7 COMPENSATION PAID TO SELLERS AND FINDERS

The Trust may engage selling agents including registered securities dealers, exempt market dealers or, where permitted, non-registrants. The Trust may pay a sales fee to such selling agents in an amount not to exceed 6% on all subscription monies received by such persons. The Trust’s expectation is that the average sales fee paid will be approximately 4% of the subscription proceeds. Assuming an offering of 3,351,827 Units for aggregate proceeds of $58,067,386 and that average of such fees is 4% across all Units subscribed for, such fees would be $2,322,695. Notwithstanding that the Units are also offered in United States dollars, the amounts presented are based on a price of $17.3241 per Unit (see “Explanatory Note and Currency”).

In addition to any amounts payable by the Trust, the Operating GP may pay a sales fee to registered securities dealers and exempt market dealers, or where permitted, non-registrants, in an amount not to exceed 6% of the subscription monies. The Operating GP’s expectation is that the average sales fee paid will be approximately 1% of the subscription proceeds. Assuming an offering of 3,351,827 Units for aggregate proceeds of $58,067,386 and that average of such fees is 1% across all Units subscribed for, such fees would be $580,674. Notwithstanding that the Units are also offered in United States dollars, the amounts presented are based on a price of $17.3241 per Unit (see “Explanatory Note and Currency”).

In addition to any amounts payable by the Trust, the Operating GP may also pay trailing commissions to registered securities dealers in respect of Units sold by them or held in client accounts of such registered securities dealers. The Operating GP expects the average trailing commission will be approximately 1% per annum on invested capital.

To the extent that the Operating GP agrees to pay any sales fees or trailing commissions, the Operating GP will use amounts earned by it pursuant to the Services Agreement, including Acquisition Fees or Asset Management Fees, and there will be no impact to the Trust’s funds.

ITEM 8 RISK FACTORS

The purchase of securities hereunder involves a number of risk factors. The risks described below are not the only risks involved with an investment in the Units. If any of the following risks occur, or if others occur, the issuer’s business, operating results and financial condition could be seriously harmed and Purchasers may lose all of their investment. Risks affecting the Trust will affect its ability to make distributions on the Units. In addition to the risk factors set forth elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, prospective purchasers should consider the following risks associated with a purchase of such securities:

Investment Risk

This is a Blind Pool Offering – This is primarily a “blind pool” Offering. The Trust’s Property Portfolio consists of nine Properties. See “Development of the Business – Properties Acquired to Date”. Although the Trust expects that the available net proceeds of the Offering will be applied by the Operating LP, directly or indirectly, in the purchase of additional Properties, the specific additional Properties in which the Operating LP, or its subsidiary entities, will invest have not yet been determined.

No Market for Units – There currently is no market whatsoever for the Units and it is expected that there will be no market for the Units. Consequently, holders of such securities may not be able to sell them readily, and Units may not be readily accepted as collateral for a loan. Purchasers should be prepared to hold these securities indefinitely and cannot expect to be able to liquidate their investment even in the case of an emergency. Accordingly, an investment in Units is suitable solely for persons able to make and bear the economic risk of a long-term investment.

Return not Guaranteed – The Hurdle Return – Investment LP is not a guaranteed return and may not be paid on a current basis in each year or at all. The return on an investment in the Units is not comparable to the return on an investment in a fixed-income security. Cash distributions, including a return of a Unitholder’s original investment, are not guaranteed and their recovery by an investor is at risk and the anticipated return on investment is based upon many performance assumptions.

Currency Exchange Rate Risk – The Offering Price for Units is denominated in Canadian dollars and United States dollars, but the underlying investment in the Properties will be denominated in United States dollars. The Canadian dollar is not maintained at a fixed exchange rate compared to foreign currencies but rather the value of the Canadian dollar has a floating exchange rate in relation to other currencies. Consequently, income and expense or any ultimate gain on sale will be earned or incurred in United States dollars. As a result of fluctuations in the Canada/U.S. dollar exchange rate, the value of an investment in Units and the return on the original investment, when expressed in Canadian dollars, may be greater or less than that determined only with reference to United States dollars. Accordingly, investors are subject to currency exchange rate risk.

Reliance on Assumptions – The Trust’s business plan and investment strategy have been formulated based on the Trust’s analysis and expectations regarding recent economic developments in the United States, the future recovery of U.S. real estate markets generally and the U.S. to Canadian dollar exchange rate. Such analysis may be incorrect and such expectations may not be realized, in which event the Hurdle Return – Investment LP may not be achieved.

No Maximum Time for Investment of Net Proceeds - There is no maximum time period for the full investment of the net proceeds of the Offering in Properties and the timing of such investment will depend upon the Operating GP’s identification of Properties meeting the criteria for acquisition. There is a risk that the Operating LP may not invest all proceeds of the Offering in Properties and not be able to generate sufficient funds for the Investment LP to pay the Hurdle Return – Investment LP.

Liability of Unitholders – There is a risk that a Unitholder could be held personally liable for obligations in connection with the Trust (to the extent that claims are not satisfied by the Trust). The Trust Declaration provides that no Unitholder shall be held to have any personal liability as such for satisfaction of any obligation in respect of or claim arising out of or in connection with any contract or obligation of the Trust or the Trustee (to the extent that claims are not satisfied by the Trust). In any event, the Trust Declaration requires the Trustee to ensure that any written contract or commitment of the Trust includes an express limitation of liability except where not reasonably possible.

Risks Associated with Redemptions

Use of Available Cash – The payment in cash by the Trust of the redemption price of Units will reduce the amount of cash available to the Trust for the payment of distributions to the holders of Units, as the payment of the amount due in respect of redemptions will take priority over the payment of cash distributions.

- (a) Limitation on Payment of Redemption Price in Cash – The total cash amount available for the payment of the redemption price of Units by the Trust is limited to 1/2 of 1% of the aggregate Subscription Price of all Units that were issued and outstanding at the start of such calendar quarter and 2% of the aggregate subscription price of all Units that were issued and outstanding at the start of such twelve month period.

- (b) Payment of Redemption Price in Kind – As a result of the foregoing limitations, the redemption of Units may be paid by way of a Trust Note, Debt Security or an Investment LP Unit. Trust Notes and Debt Securities are payable over a term of five years or less with annual interest at the Canada Five-Year Yield. Trust Notes, Debt Securities and Investment LP Units received as a result of redemptions of Units may not be liquid. Further, they will generally not be qualified investments or may be prohibited investments for Plans. Where Trust Notes, Debt Securities or Investment LP Units held by a Plan are not qualified investments or are prohibited investments, adverse tax consequences will generally arise to the Plan and the annuitant, beneficiary or holder of the Plan, including, depending on the circumstances, that the Plan and the annuitant, beneficiary or holder may become subject to additional taxes and penalties, that the annuitant, beneficiary or holder of the Plan may be deemed to have received income therefrom, and that the Plan may have its tax status revoked. Accordingly, Plans that propose to invest in Units should consult their own tax advisors before doing so and before deciding to exercise the redemption rights attached to such Units.

Liquidity Risk – The Units are not listed on an exchange. There is currently no secondary market through which the Units may be sold, there can be no assurance that any such market will develop and the Trust has no current plans to develop such a market. Accordingly, the sole method of liquidation of an investment in Units is by way of redemption of Units. Which are subject to the limitations discussed in Item 5.1 “Terms of Units – Redemption”.

Risk Factors Relating to the Trust’s Canadian Tax Status – The Trust intends to qualify as a “mutual fund trust” under the Tax Act at all relevant times. If the Trust does not meet the requisite conditions or otherwise does not qualify or ceases to qualify as a “mutual fund trust” under the Tax Act, adverse consequences may arise including that: (i) the Trust may become liable to pay certain additional tax liabilities (with the result that the amount of cash available for distribution by the non-qualifying trust would be reduced and Unitholders may otherwise be adversely affected), and (ii) the Units will not be qualified investments for Plans (with the result that adverse tax consequences will generally arise to the Plan and the annuitant, beneficiary or holder of the Plan, including, depending on the circumstances, that the Plan and the annuitant, beneficiary or holder may become subject to additional taxes and penalties, that the annuitant, beneficiary or holder of the Plan may be deemed to have received income therefrom, and that the Plan may have its tax status revoked.

Risk Factors Relating to FAPI – FAPI earned by Holding Co must be included in computing Investment Co’s income for taxation year of Investment Co in which the taxation year of Holding Co ends, subject to a deduction for grossed-up “foreign accrual tax” as computed in accordance with the Tax Act. The deduction for grossed-up “foreign accrual tax” may not fully offset the FAPI realized by Holding Co, thereby increasing Investment Co’s Canadian tax liability and reducing cash available for distribution to unitholders. In addition, as FAPI generally must be computed in accordance with Part I of the Tax Act as though the affiliate were a resident of Canada (subject to the detailed rules contained in the Tax Act), income or transactions that are not taxable to Holding Co under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, may still give rise to FAPI for purposes of the Tax Act and, accordingly, may result in a Canadian tax liability of Investment Co, thereby reducing cash available for distribution to Unitholders.

Risk Factors Relating to the Treatment of SIFTs and Controlled Foreign Affiliates – There can be no assurances that Canadian federal income tax laws respecting the criteria relating to, and the treatment of SIFTs or controlled foreign affiliates’ exempt surplus will not be changed, or that administrative policies and assessing practices of the CRA will not develop, in a manner which adversely affects the Trust or the Unitholders.

Other Canadian Tax and Foreign Tax Related Risk Factors – The tax treatment of investment and real estate activities of the Trust have a material effect on the advisability of an investment in the Units. The rules governing the Canadian federal income taxation of Unitholders are complex. The summary in “Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations” does not address or consider all aspects of Canadian federal income tax of an investment in the Trust and does not consider provincial, territorial, U.S., State, or other foreign tax legislation or considerations. Prospective investors should consult their own professional advisors as to the tax consequences to them of making an investment in, and of holding, Units offered herein.

Risk Factors Relating to Non-Residents – The Tax Act may impose additional withholding or other taxes on distributions made by the Trust to Unitholders who are non-residents of Canada. These taxes and any reduction thereof under a tax treaty between Canada and another country may change from time to time. In addition, this Offering Memorandum does not describe the tax consequences under the Tax Act to non-residents, which may be more adverse than the consequences to other Unitholders. Prospective purchasers who are non-residents should consult their own tax advisors.

Issuer Risk

Reliance on Management – Prospective purchasers assessing the risks and rewards of this investment should appreciate that they will, in large part, be relying on the good faith and expertise of the Operating GP and its principals in determining the composition of the portfolio of Properties, and in negotiating the pricing and other terms of the agreements leading to the acquisition of Properties.

U.S. Market Factors – The Properties will be located in the U.S. Global market and economic conditions since the beginning of 2008 have been challenging with recession conditions in the North American economy. U.S. markets appear to be improving, albeit slowly, and are currently experiencing declining levels of unemployment, stable or rising home prices, declining foreclosure rates, and improving but curtailed access to credit markets. Fears of a “double-dip” recession have somewhat subsided, although the rate of recovery remains slow when compared to previous recessions. Although the recession technically ended in June, 2009, the U.S. economy has not yet returned to operating at normal capacity and the effects of the coming reduction in fiscal stimulus programs may halt the nascent recovery. Concern about the stability of the markets generally and the strength of the economic recovery may lead lenders to curtail funding to businesses and consumers, and force financial institutions to continue to take the necessary steps to restructure their business and capital structures. Although economic indicators suggest that the worst of the economic downturn has passed, the demand for housing, support for rents and property values may not continue on their current trajectory and the domestic and international economic shocks could lead to a deterioration of market conditions. The Trust cannot predict when or if the real estate markets will recover to such a level that will allow for the accomplishment of its stated objectives. The value of Properties acquired may decline if market conditions cease their improvement or worsen.

Industry Risk

Risks of Real Estate Investment and Ownership – Investment in real estate is subject to numerous risks, including the factors listed below and other events and factors which are beyond the control of the Trust:

- (a) Acquisition Risk – The Operating LP intends to acquire Properties selectively. The acquisition of Properties entails risks that investments will fail to perform in accordance with expectations. In undertaking such acquisitions, the Operating LP will incur certain risks, including the expenditure of funds on, and the devotion of management’s time to, transactions that may not come to fruition. Additional risks inherent in acquisitions include risks that the Properties will not achieve anticipated occupancy levels and that estimates of the costs of improvements to bring an acquired Property up to standards established for the market position intended for that Property may prove inaccurate.
- (b) General Real Estate Ownership Risks – All real property investments are subject to a degree of risk and uncertainty. Property investments are affected by various factors including general economic conditions, local real estate markets, demand for leased premises, competition from other available premises and various other factors. The value of real property and any improvements thereto may also depend on the credit and financial stability of the tenants. Distributable cash flow will be adversely affected if a significant number of tenants of the Properties were to become unable to meet their obligations under their leases or if a significant amount of available space in the Properties is not able to be leased on economically favourable lease terms. A prolonged deterioration in economic conditions could increase and exacerbate the foregoing risks. The failure to rent unleased space on a timely basis or at all would likely have an adverse effect on the Trust’s financial condition.

Certain significant expenditures, including property taxes, maintenance costs, mortgage payments, insurance costs and related charges must be made throughout the period of ownership of real property regardless of whether a Property is producing any income. Real property investments tend to be relatively illiquid, with the degree of liquidity generally fluctuating in relationship with demand for and the perceived desirability of such investments. Such illiquidity will tend to limit the Operating LP’s ability to vary its portfolio promptly in response to changing economic or investment conditions. If for whatever reason, liquidation of assets is required, there is a risk that sales proceeds realized might be less than the current book value of the Operating LP's investments or that market conditions would prevent prompt disposition of assets.

- (c) Financing Risks – There is no assurance that the Operating LP will be able to obtain sufficient mortgage loans to finance the acquisition of Properties, or, if available, that the Operating LP will be able to obtain mortgage loans on commercially acceptable terms. Further, there is no assurance or guarantee that any mortgage loans, if obtained, will be renewed when they mature or, if renewed, renewed on the same terms and conditions (including the rate of interest). In the absence of mortgage financing, the number of Properties which the Operating LP is able to purchase will decrease and the possible return from the ownership of Properties will be reduced. Even if the Operating LP is successful in obtaining adequate mortgage loans, the Operating LP may not be able to generate sufficient funds through the operation of the Properties to service the mortgage loans. If a default occurs under any of the mortgage loans, one or more of the lenders could exercise its rights including, without limitation, foreclosure or sale of the Properties.
- (d) Interest Rate Fluctuations – It is anticipated that the value of Units at any given time may be affected by the level of interest rates prevailing at that time. A rise in interest rates may have a negative effect on the value of Units. A decrease in interest rates may encourage tenants to purchase condominiums or other types of housing, which could result in a reduction in demand for rental properties. Changes in the interest rates may also have effects on vacancy rates, rent levels, repositioning costs and other factors affecting the Trust's business and profitability. The mortgage loans arranged by the Operating LP may include indebtedness with interest rates based on variable lending rates that will result in fluctuations in the Operating LP's cost of borrowing.
- (e) Potential Liability under Environmental Protection Legislation – Environmental and ecological legislation and policies have become increasingly important in recent years. Under various laws, the Operating LP could become liable for the costs of removal or remediation of certain hazardous or toxic substances released on, from or in one or more of the Properties or disposed of at other locations. The failure to remove or remediate such substances, if any, may adversely affect the Operating LP's ability to sell such Property or to borrow using the Property as collateral, and could potentially also result in claims against the Operating LP by private parties.
- (f) Uninsured Losses – The Operating GP will, under the terms of the Operating LP Agreement, arrange for comprehensive insurance, including fire, liability and extended coverage, of the type and in the amounts customarily obtained for properties similar to those to be owned by the Operating LP and will endeavour to obtain coverage where warranted against earthquakes and floods. However, in many cases certain types of losses (generally of a catastrophic nature) are either uninsurable or not economically insurable. Should such a disaster occur with respect to any of the Properties, the Operating LP could suffer a loss of capital invested and not realize any profits which might be anticipated from the disposition of such Properties.
- (g) Competition for Real Property Investments – The Operating LP will compete for suitable real property investments with individuals, corporations, real estate investment trusts and similar vehicles, and institutions (both U.S., Canadian and foreign) which are presently seeking or which may seek in the future real property investments similar to those sought by the Operating LP. An increased availability of investment funds allocated for investment in real estate would tend to increase competition for real property investments and increase purchase prices, reducing the yield on such investments.
- (h) Revenue Shortfalls – Revenues from the Properties may not increase sufficiently to meet increases in operating expenses or debt service payments under mortgages or to fund changes in the variable rates of interest charged in respect of such loans.
- (i) Joint Ventures – The Operating LP may invest in or be a participant in joint ventures and partnerships with third parties in respect of the Properties. A joint venture or partnership involves certain additional risks, including, (i) the possibility that such co-venturers/partners may at any time have economic or business interests or goals that will be inconsistent with the Operating LP or take actions contrary to the Operating LP instructions or requests or to the Operating LP policies or objectives with respect to the Properties, (ii) the risk that such co-venturers/partners could experience financial difficulties or seek the protection of bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws, which could result in additional financial demands to maintain and operate such Properties or repay the co-venturers'/partners' share of property debt guaranteed by the Operating LP or for which the Operating LP will be liable and/or result in the Operating LP suffering or incurring delays, expenses and other problems associated with obtaining court approval of joint venture or partnership decisions, (iii) the risk that such co-venturers/partners may, through their activities on behalf of or in the name of, the ventures or partnerships, expose or subject the Operating LP to liability, (iv) the need to obtain co-venturers'/partners' consent with respect to certain major decisions, including the decision to distribute cash generated from such Properties or to refinance or sell a Property. In addition, the sale or transfer of interests in certain of the joint ventures and partnerships may be subject to rights of first refusal or first offer and certain of the joint venture and partnership agreements may provide for buy-sell or similar arrangements; the fact that the Operating LP may not control the joint venture or partnership decisions. Such rights may be triggered at a time when the Operating LP may not desire to sell but may be forced to do so because the Operating LP do not have the cash to purchase the other party's interests. Such rights may also inhibit the Operating LP's ability to sell an interest in a Property or a joint venture/partnership within the time frame or otherwise on the basis the Operating LP desires.

For all of the aforesaid reasons and others set forth and not set forth herein, the Units involve a certain degree of risk. Any person considering the purchase of the Units should be aware of these and other factors set forth in this Offering Memorandum and should consult with his/her legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Units. The Units should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their total investment.

ITEM 9 REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

Because the Trust is not a "reporting issuer" as defined in the applicable securities legislation, the continuous reporting requirements of those statutes do not generally apply to the Trust.

The Trust is not required to send you any documents on an annual or ongoing basis. The Trust will, however, on or before March 31 in each calendar year, provide to each Unitholder audited annual financial statements and all other information required to file Canadian income tax returns.

ITEM 10 RESALE RESTRICTIONS

The Units will be subject to a number of resale restrictions, including a restriction on trading. Until the restriction on trading expires, Unitholders will not be able to trade the Units unless they comply with an exemption from the prospectus and registration requirements under securities legislation.

Unless permitted under securities legislation, Unitholders cannot trade the securities before the date that is four months and a day after the date the Trust becomes a reporting issuer in any province or territory of Canada. The Trust does not intend to become a reporting issuer at any time, with the result that the Unitholders may never be able to trade or re-sell their Units.

Unless permitted under securities legislation, you must not trade the securities without the prior written consent of the regulator in Manitoba unless: (a) the Trust has filed a prospectus with the regulator in Manitoba with respect to the securities you have purchased and the regulator in Manitoba has issued a receipt for that prospectus; or (b) you have held the securities for at least 12 months. The regulator in Manitoba will consent to your trade if the regulator is of the opinion that to do so is not prejudicial to the public interest.
