News Release

BCSC imposes temporary restrictions on two companies and two individuals

Date:
2026-07-16

Number:
2026/050

Vancouver – The Executive Director of the BC Securities Commission (BCSC) has imposed a temporary order against two B.C. companies and two individuals connected to the companies.

BCSC staff have obtained evidence indicating that Everything Financial Group (EFG), Everything Financial Consultants Inc. (EFCI) and Peter Cishecki sold debt securities to investors and are making principal and interest payments to investors using other investors' money, and that Shannon Knapp contributed to their conduct. Therefore, they may be violating B.C.'s Securities Act.

The temporary order prohibits the trading or purchasing of any EFG or EFCI securities. It also prohibits EFG, EFCI, Cishecki, and Knapp from engaging in promotional activities on behalf of EFG or EFCI.

The temporary order is based on the Executive Director's determination that the length of time needed to hold a hearing into this conduct could be prejudicial to the public interest. The order will remain in effect until July 30, 2026, at which time the Executive Director may apply to a Commission panel to extend it.
