Ruling

I. Background

- [1] On December 15, 2025, [REDACTED] (Applicant) filed a notice of application seeking, amongst other things:
- a) an order that no further application dates be scheduled, including the constitutional question hearing, the section 8 application, or the second phase of the abuse of process application until the executive director has fully responded to the Applicant's outstanding disclosure requests dated December 9, 2025,
  - b) an order for the executive director to produce a response to the Applicant's outstanding disclosure requests dated December 9, 2025 within a timeframe set by the Commission, and
  - c) an order for a hearing management meeting conference to be set after the executive director produces the disclosure set out in the December 9, 2025 letter.
- [2] On December 23, 2025, the executive director provided responding submissions opposing the application.
- [3] On January 9, 2026, the Applicant provided reply submissions.

- [4] On January 13, 2026, the executive director provided sur-reply submissions.
- [5] No submissions on this application were received from the corporate respondent or the Attorney General of British Columbia.

II. Ruling

- [6] After considering the written submissions of the Applicant and the executive director, we rule that the application dated December 15, 2025 is dismissed.
- [7] Our reasons will follow.
