(The Respondents)

Order

- [1] The Commission received applications from several parties in this matter (the Applicants) for orders that their applications relating to orders made under section 151 of the Securities Act, RSBC 1996, c. 418 (the Substantive Applications) be held in camera.
- [2] The Applicants are Tryton Financial Corp., Saiya Capital Corporation, Abeir Haddad, Tara Kerry Haddad, Randy White, Escher Invest SA, Hunton Advisory Ltd., Kendl Capital Limited, David Raymond Duggan, Viral Stocks Inc., 727 Capital, 10X Capital, Simran Singh Gill, Altitude Marketing Corp., Ryan Peter Venier, Tollstam & Company Chartered Accountants and Albert Kenneth Tollstam.
- [3] On June 12, 2019, the executive director consented to the Applicants' request that the Substantive Applications be heard in camera.

¹ The original style of cause in this matter included Beleave Inc. On June 11, 2019, considering it would not be prejudicial to the public interest, the executive director discontinued the proceedings against Beleave Inc. Therefore, the style of cause has been amended to refer only to the remaining respondents.

- [4] Section 19 of the Securities Regulation, BC Reg. 197/97 requires that hearings before the Commission be open to the public unless a public hearing would be unduly prejudicial to a party or a witness, and it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to order that the public be excluded from all or part of the hearing. This is reflected in section 7.5 of BC Policy 15-601 Hearings.
- [5] Given that the Substantive Applications relate to orders that are not public and the hearing of these applications will involve discussion of sensitive financial and personal information, it would be unduly prejudicial to the Applicants for the hearings to be open to the public.

Order

- [6] After reviewing the submissions of the Applicants and the executive director, and considering that a public hearing of the Substantive Applications would be unduly prejudicial to the Applicants and that to conduct such hearings in camera would not be prejudicial to the public interest, we order pursuant to section 19(2) of the Securities Regulation that the public be excluded from the hearings concerning the Substantive Applications.
- [7] This order does not apply to the Respondents or their counsel, who are not excluded from the hearing of the Substantive Applications.
