Order

Securities Act*, RSBC 1996, c. 418

- [1] On July 16, 2019, Camp Fiorante Matthews Mogerma (Camp Fiorante) applied for access to certain records in this proceeding. On September 10, 2019, the panel made a decision to grant access to those records, subject to any submissions of the parties relating to redactions of personal and sensitive financial information (the Decision), with reasons to follow. On September 12, 2019 we issued our reasons for the Decision (2019 BCSECCOM 331).
- [2] BridgeMark Financial Corp., Jackson & Company Professional Corp. Anthony Kevin Jackson, Kootenay Zinc Corp., Lukor Capital Corp. and Justin Edgar Liu (the Applicants) applied for a stay of the Decision, pending application for leave to appeal the Decision to the Court of Appeal.
- [3] Camp Fiorante did not object to a stay of the Decision, on the condition that certain persons be made a party to the application for leave to appeal and that the application for leave be delivered to Camp Fiorante once it is filed. The Applicants agreed to that condition. The Executive Director took no position on the stay application.

Order

- [4] The panel stays the Decision, by consent, for 90 days from the date of this order.
