What happens now?

If we determine that a detailed review of your complaint should be conducted, you may receive a letter with contact details of the person assigned to assess your complaint. You may contact this person to discuss any further questions, comments or concerns, or to provide additional or new information relevant to your complaint. Please understand that the contact person cannot discuss with you any details of an investigation prior to its conclusion. We take this precaution to ensure that we do not divulge any information that may jeopardize an investigation.

The BCSC collects the information on this form to determine what, if any, action it can take. The BCSC keeps confidential all complaints it receives. The information you provide will only be used in accordance with the BCSC's duties and powers, as described in the British Columbia Securities Act.

We collect, use and disclose personal information in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, RSC 1996, c. 165. For more on our privacy policy and use of information, view the Legal page on our website.
